DOUBLE CHRISTMAS CHEER — The cards displayed here show four of the ways that you can put your Christmas card money to worthy use while sending greetings to your friends. Each is distributed by a charitable organization. The Santa Claus at the top right was designed by Mike Reed of Plymouth. That one, as well as a more delicate reindeer drawing, is offered by the Michigan Association for Emotionally Disturbed Children and may be ordered at $1.50 for a pack of 10 by calling the Hawthorn-Northville chapter, 349-3000, extension 343. At the upper left is a card offered by the Michigan Diabetes association. It must be ordered by Dec. 1, through the association, 6131 W. Outer Drive, Detroit. The cost is 25 cards for $3.75. The Child Research Center league offers the card at the lower left, which may be ordered for $4.50 for 25 through Mrs. Marshall Pickell, 17333 Birchwood, Birmingham. At the lower right is a card offered by Readings for the Blind, Inc., which costs $3.75 for a box of 25 and can be ordered from the organization at 32767 Franklin Road, Franklin.

Alumnae Will Swap Cookies Cancer Foundation Offers Yule Cards

A cookie swap will be held at a meeting of the Western Wayne County Alumnae Chapter of Alpha Xi Delta Tuesday, Dec. 8, at 9 p.m. The group will meet in the home of Mrs. Jeanette Hopkins, 42485 Roberta, Plymouth.

The program will also feature a workshop for the Plymouth State Home.

All members in this area are invited, and are asked to call the co-hostesses, Mrs. Nancy MacDonald, 728-3555, or Mrs. Lynn Peleshok, 721-1195, for reservations.

Add Length

Draperies too short? Give them a lengthier look with a row of wide, wider fringe (the type you see on bedspreads).

A golden dove of peace on an olive green background this year will carry a Christmas message for the Michigan Cancer Foundation.

The foundation is selling the cards to support its continuing and expanding program of cancer research.

The card comes in a gold-colored envelope and reads "May joy and peace be with you today and always."

THE COST of 25 cards is $3.75, and for an additional $2.50 the purchaser may have his name imprinted on any size order.

The cards are on display in the Michigan Cancer Foundation office at 1112 N. Telegraph, Dearborn, or may be ordered by calling the office at LO 5-1440 any week day between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m.

In addition to a vigorous program of cancer research,

GAYE TEGGE

Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Tegge of Conroy Court, Farmington, announce the engagement of their daughter, Gaye Ellen, to Patrick G. Shivers, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Shivers of Port Huron. Both are 1965 graduates of Marysville High School in Marysville, Mich. The bride-elect attended Eastern Michigan University and her fiancé served in Vietnam for 21 months with the U.S. Marines. They plan to be married May 7 in Trinity Lutheran Church in Port Huron.

Hanukkah Cards Are Available

A traditional Hanukkah greeting card is being offered by the Wayne County Unit of the American Cancer Society to the public.

The card, which depicts the Menorah, offers individuals and businesses an opportunity to convey holiday greetings to their friends, clients and business associates. The suggested minimum contribution of $10 per box of 25 is tax deductible. Proceeds will go to support the Society's research and patient service programs throughout Wayne County.

"In particular, the society is carrying out an extensive program of professional education, to be certain that every member of the medical and para-medical professions is abreast of the latest trends and practices in the diagnosis and treatment of cancer patients," said Dr. Norman A. Nelson, medical advisor, American Cancer Society, Wayne County Unit.

The Hanukkah cards may be ordered from the Society by contacting the Wayne County Unit at 15241 W. McNichols, Detroit, 48235. Phone orders are accepted at 272-7050.

Bozo To Visit Pre-Schoolers

Parents of pre-school children are invited to take them to meet Bozo the Clown Wednesday, Dec. 9. Bozo will be at the Village Red Bell Children's Nursery, 31195 W. 12 Mile Rd., Farmington, between 3 and 4 p.m.

Program theme for the week at the nursery is circus clowns.

The nursery is located one block east of Orchard Lake Road.

Open House Set For Yule

Members of the North Suburban Alumnae Association of Chi Omega will attend a Christmas open house with their husbands at 8 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 5, in the home of Mrs. Ray Spicola, 580 Westwood, Birmingham.

Those wishing to attend may make reservations with Mrs. Fred Goldberg, 4544 Valleyview, Orchard Lake, or Mrs. Thomas Nelson, 1213 Greenleaf, Royal Oak.

Choral Group To Entertain

The Auxiliary to the Salvation Army will meet Tuesday, Dec. 8, in the Eventide Residence, 2643 Park Avenue, Detroit. The program will open at 1:30 p.m.

The Retired Men's Fellowship Choral Group of Detroit, directed by Grayson East, will sing. The group consists of 20 retired men with an average age of 74, and was formed four years ago. They will present a varied program of old and new songs. Herbert Klepper is the concert master.

Social chairman Ann Schmitt and her committee will serve Christmas tea.

A board meeting will be held at 11 a.m.

Going, Going...

A make-it, bake-it, sew-it, grow-it auction is scheduled by the South Oakland Alumnae of Sigma Kappa sorority at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 8 in the home of Mrs. Arthur Kaufmann, 5570 Brookdale, Birmingham.

Members are asked to make reservations with Mrs. Kaufmann, 646-8873, or Mrs. Sidney Bogg, LI 2-7709, by Dec. 6. Each will bring two or more items for the auction and $1 gift to exchange.

MRS. CLAYTON JARVEY
(Sally Gilles)

Wedding Trip Is To Jamaica

Two Livonia teachers left for a honeymoon in Jamaica following their marriage Nov. 20 in Our Lady of Good Counsel Church, Plymouth.

The bride is the former Sally Jane Gilles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Gilles of Adams Street, Plymouth, and the bridegroom is James Jarvey. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Jarvey of Calumet, Mich.

The Rev. Francis C. Byrne officiated at the ceremony. The church was decorated with arrangements of pink and white flowers.

The bride wore a full-length formal gown of Belle Epoque styling in antique ivory silk organza with a high-waisted bodice of hand-cut reemboirdered Alencon lace. The long sleeves were gathered into tucked satin cuffs.

A deep band of satin was repeated on the slightly bouffant skirt, and an attached train bordered with two vertical bands of lace swept into a full cathedral circle. The elbow-length veil of silk illusion was held with matching Alencon lace and pearls. She carried a nosegay of white sweetheart roses and baby's breath.

ELIZABETH WIDEMAN was maid of honor and Mrs. Brian Gilles, the bride's sister-in-law, Diane DiPonio and Virginia Petner, were the bridesmaids. All wore Victorian gowns featuring ecru lace bodices and burgundy velvet skirts. They carried nosegays of pink sweetheart roses and white carnations.

Christine and Wendy Gilles, the bride's nieces, were the flower girls. They carried baskets of pink sweetheart roses and wore Victorian gowns like those of the other attendants.

ROBERT WOLF was best man and Brian Gilles, the bride's brother, John Jarvey,
