HOW TO MAKE YOUR GARAGE SALE A SMASHING SUCCESS!

Garage sales are on their way to becoming a great American tradition with 1988 set for both the budget-conscious buyer and the enterprising seller who can earn extra cash by recycling unwanted but still useful "treasures". With this in mind, Real Estate One offers the following tips for making your garage sale a pleasant and successful experience.

1. Ask plenty of friends to come to your sale.
2. Choose a day that will not conflict with other events in your area.
3. Arrange for a place to park your customers.
4. Your sale items should be displayed in a neat and organized manner. Some items should be grouped together.
5. Put your items in good condition. Clean, dry, and repair items before displaying them.
6. Make your items easy to see. Use signs and displays to attract attention.
7. Make your items easy to handle. Use boxes and bags to hold items.
8. Make your items easy to move. Use a dolly or a hand truck to move items.
9. Make your items easy to sell. Use a cash register or a cash box to collect money.
10. Make your items easy to store. Use a storage area to hold items.
