Accident leaves 2 hurt, 1 seriously

Farmington Hills firefighters and CEMS para-demics free the driver of this car, the front of which became imbedded in the wall of an office building at 31600 13 Mile, just west of Or-chard Lake Road, Monday morning.

1 driver veers into wall

Two Farmington Hills men were hurt, one scriously, when a collision on 13 Mile sent one of their vehicles across the road, through a parking lot and into the front wall of a Bond Street Office Park building Monday morning.

No one was in the damaged office at the time of the 8:15 mm. crash.

The other driver, a 38-year-old man, was not seriously hurt.

Both drivers were wearing sea betts, police said.

The council remains divided on the workhness of the pre-approval policy, as well as conference attendance. Some are glad the policy is gone. Others want it back.

"It (pre-approval policy) was doing things that were totally wrong," said councilman Joe Alkateb." Ilke to be treated with dignity and for some reason, some people up to plittleians in the column of dishonest thleves."

Councilwoman Jean Fox believes conference attendance should be an individual choice and that financial ty and for some reason, some people preparation. Voters also have the honest thleves."

Marks tops conference spending
