Antique cars in parade

One of the most popular events of the Detroit-Windsor International Freedom Festival returns Saturday, June 25, when the ninth annual Wheels of Freedom Antique Auto Show and Parade rolls out a full day of family fun.

Hundreds of dazzling cars from the early days of motoring will be on display from 9 a.m. to noon in Windsor's City Hall Square. A noon parade across the Ambassador Bridge will take the cars to Detroit's New Center area for the afternoon.

Two of the cars will be driven by Farmington Hills residents.

Bill Wolf will be driving a 1937 Packard. Vic Hollingshead will be driving his 1949 Ford.
