Come, will perform at 1:30 p.m. Friday-Saturday, June 17-18, at the Pontiac Silverdome. Tickets are $25. For more information, call 546-1600.

MUSIC THEATER

The Church will perform at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, June 18, at the Music Theatre. Tickets are $16.50. For more information, call 546-7610.

SOUTH AFRICA

Actress Katrina Ganey will present "Have You Really Seen South Africa?" at 8 p.m. Saturday, June 18, at the Swords into Plowshares Peace Center and Gallery in Detroit. Ganey's benefit performance tells, through music and slides, of her experiences in South Africa in the summer of 1987. The peace center was one of the sponsors for her visit to that country. Ganey most recently was featured in the Detroit Repertory Theatre production of "The Colored Museum." A self-described "actress against apartheid," she is active with the Michigan Coalition for Human Rights and the Church of the Messiah. For further information, call Central United Methodist Church, 955-5422, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

COMEDY CASTLE

Bill Thomas continues through Saturday, June 18, at Mark Ridley's Detroit Comedy Castle — in the Westin hotel in the Renaissance Center. The metro Detroit comic is scheduled as the headline act. On the comedy circuit playing clubs across the U.S., Thomas has appeared before crowds from Rhode Island to Arizona. He has appeared on the CBS "Morning Show" and opened for the Temptations, the Four Tops, Terrence Trent D'Arby, America and Chuck Berry. Tickets are $8, through Thursday, June 16, and $10, Friday, Saturday, June 17-18.

'BLITHE SPIRIT'

Eastern Michigan University Theatre will present "Blithe Spirit," a classic farce by Noel Coward, continues through Saturday, June 18 at Eastern Michigan University's Sponberg Theatre in Ypsilanti. Curtain times are 8 p.m. Thursday-Saturday and 2:30 p.m. Sunday. Call the EMU Arts and Entertainment Box Office at 487-1221 for ticket information.

SUMMER MATINEES

Detroit Center for the Performing Arts will present a series of summer matinees for the family. Legends, colorful costumes and authentic Indian songs are featured in "Hiawatha," on Wednesday, July 13, Thursday, July 21, and Wednesday, Aug. 3. "Dancin' America," a musical, continues Tuesday, Aug. 16. Children's magic is an introduction to live theater for youngsters 3-7 years old, with audience participation as the kids get caught up in stories of Little Red Riding Hood and Three Billy Goats Gruff. Show dates continue Friday, July 8, and Thursday, Aug. 11. All performances start at 10 a.m. in the Eastown Theatre in Detroit. Admission is $2.50 per person. For reservations, call 961-7925.

ANN ARBOR

John Roberts and Tony Barrand, two English singers, known for their total recall of many old pub songs and for their humor, perform at 8 p.m. (doors open at 7:30) Thursday, June 16, at the Ark in Ann Arbor. The June 17 and June 18, The Chiffon Sisters appear in a live recording concert Friday-Sunday, June 17-19. To order tickets by phone with charge card, call 763-TKTS.

FREEDOM FESTIVAL

The International Freedom Festival Torch kicks off the celebration's Opening Ceremonies at 8 p.m. Thursday, June 16, in Dieppe Park in Windsor. Joe LeGoff, news anchor at Detroit's WDIV-TV, will emcee the event as dignitaries from both the United States and Canada are greeted by the Police Pipe Band. The festival bell will ring, the flags of both countries will be raised and guns will be fired to begin the 1988 30th annual Freedom Festival activities. This year's festival is expected to draw approximately three million people to more than 100 events that celebrate the United States Independence Day observance on July 4 and Canada Day, commemorating the creation of the Dominion, July 1, 1867.

JAZZ CONCERT

"Blue Monday," a series of six free outdoor jazz concerts sponsored by the Graystone International Jazz Museum, will be presented at Hart Plaza, from 7:30-9 p.m. from July 11 through Aug. 15, at Hart Plaza in Detroit. Concert dates: July 11 — Birdland Revisited: A tribute to the former "jazz corner of the world," with the Jimmy Wilkins Orchestra. July 18 — The Main Streets of Jazz: Basin Street, Hastings Street and 52nd Street, with Alma Smith
