

Opera friends debut

The newly formed "Friends of the Opera" will present its premiere concert at 3 p.m. Sunday in Kresge Auditorium of Madonna College (Levan 91-1-96), Livonia.

The concert, presented in honor of the great tenor, Enrico Caruso, will include three vocalists, a harpist and a violinist accompanied by piano.

The program will feature selections by Puccini, Verdi, Gounod, Bizet and other celebrated composers, as well as some popular Neapolitan songs that Caruso loved to sing.

"FRIENDS OF the Opera" was founded by Enrica Piccirilli-DiVico in memory of her father, who belonged to a similar opera support group in Italy. It is a non-profit society that will foster and spread the appreciation of opera, primarily through concertizing and study groups.

Club members will gather to listen to and discuss operas in an informal setting. This concept is quite innovative and will provide a non-threatening and inexpensive way for novices to learn about opera and enjoy it in a congenial atmosphere. Concert programming and production will be another important function of the new group.

The artists participating are soprano Jan Rae of Farmington Hills, mezzo-soprano Christina Lypeckyj of Warren, baritone Quinto Milito of Dearborn, harpist Kerstin Allvin of Bloomfield Hills, violinist Peruz Zerounian of Royal Oak and pianist Bernie Katz of Detroit.

The program will feature delightful combinations of these artists in solo, duet and ensemble pieces, both instrumental and vocal.

Refreshments are included in the $5 tickets, which will be available at the door. For information, call 582-8925.

And at Bloomfield Club you'll also get club-style facilities which feature a pool and open sun deck.

But like all good things, there never seems to be enough of them. And with condominiums starting at $61,900, Bloomfield Club is no exception. Come to the Grand Opening of Phase II and take a look at the select condominiums still available to you. Models open daily 12-6 p.m., or call 646-5960 for more information.
