

recreation news

Each week, the Farmington Hills Department of Special Services Recreation Division presents a synopsis of upcoming activities. For more information about programs, please contact the recreation office at 474-6115.

● SWIMMING

Swimming instructions for beginner to advanced skill levels will be offered at Farmington and North Farmington High Schools beginning July 5 and July 18. Children must be at least 38 inches in chin height in order to participate. Preregistration fee is required.

● NATURE'S WAY DAY CAMP

Children ages 7-9 can explore, study and learn from the abundance of plant, animal and insect life that call Heritage Park their home. The camp is from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Monday through Friday, July 5-8.

day through Friday, July 5-8.

● CONCERT SERIES

On Thursday, July 7, 8 p.m. at Heritage Park, you can enjoy the soothing sounds of Novi Community Band. There is no charge for the concert. Bring your blanket or lawn chair and listen to the music of your neighborhood musicians.

● TEA PARTY

A special day for little ladies to wear their favorite party dress with Mother's hat, gloves or frills for a tea time treat and games. The party will be 10:30-11:45 a.m. Saturday, July 30. A $5 registration fee is required at the recreation office.

● KIDS DAY

Tuesday, July 12, is a day for children of all ages can enjoy a variety of activities especially planned for them. The event will be from noon to 6 p.m. at Shilohwasee Park on Shilohwasee Road between Power and Farmington roads. Activities include face painting, rides, puppet shows, clowns, junior grand prix, pet show, magic show and more. This activity is sponsored by the Farmington Hills Recreation Division, Farmington Community Center, Farmington Community Library and the Farmington YMCA.

● NATURE STUDY

Get to Know Your Insects! will be the topic on Saturday, July 16, from 10 a.m. to noon. You will collect samples of insects and learn how to identify them. The class will meet at Heritage Park. Preregistration of $3 per person or $10 per family is required at the Recreation Office.

● TENNIS LESSONS

Beginners and intermediates can advance their play skills through an eight-lesson program for children, teens and adults. Classes are held twice a week, in the morning or evening, at Farmington and North Farmington High School. Participants should wear appropriate clothing and bring a new can of tennis balls. Fee is $25 per person.
