

Christmas Decor From Appalachia Can Help Children

You can give a gift to a loved one this Christmas season and help save a child at the same time through the purchase of a holiday gift decoration under the self-help program of Save the Children (SCF), an international child welfare agency headquartered in Norwalk, Conn.

Items which the public may purchase include an assortment of Christmas wreaths in three sizes, Appalachian kissing balls and corn shuck dolls.

Each of the gift items is made by southern Appalachian mountain people striving to raise their economic status through the sale of holiday gift decorations under the self-help program administered by SCF.

Persons wishing to purchase the wreaths for themselves or as gifts may select from three sizes: 22-inch for $15, 18-inch for $10 and 14-inch for $15 plus $1.50 fee for shipping, handling and insurance for each wreath.

The Appalachian kissing balls for $5 plus a $1 shipping fee are fashioned from hundreds of miniature spruce pine cones and decorated with acorns, white spruce "flowers" and nuts. The ornaments are trimmed with velvet ribbons and mistletoe and are ready to be hung in the doorway at Christmas time.

The corn shuck angels stand approximately 6" high and are fashioned from artificially colored corn shuck. They are $1 each plus 10 cents for shipping.

Orders may be sent to Appalachian Firebirds Crafts, Inc., Box 276, Booneville, Ky. 41314.

50th Anniversary Mass To Be Concelebrated

Members of Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic Church, Plymouth, will observe the 50th anniversary of the founding of their parish Sunday, Dec. 13.

A special concelebrated mass has been planned for 9:30 a.m., and members of the parish who lived in Plymouth in 1920 have been personally invited to attend and to sing in the church hall after the mass for a social hour.

The sanctuary of the church has been decorated for the golden jubilee and a commemorative book has been prepared by the communications committee of the Parish Council.

ALTHOUGH OLCG parish has been divided twice in the past 10 years, to form St. Edith Church, Livonia, and St. Kenneth Church, Lake Pointe Village, the parish records still show more than 1,600 families registered.

Four pastors have served the parish in the past 50 years. They are the Rev. Frank C. Lefevre, 1920-33; the Rev. Victor Renaud, 1933-42; the Rev. William P. Mooney, 1942-53; and the Rev. Francis C. Byrne, the pastor since 1953. The Rev.

David A. Britz is the present associate pastor.

After existing as a mission from 1915 to 1920, with mass celebrated monthly in the Grange Hall, OLCG was given the status of a parish by the Most Rev. Michael J. Gallagher, bishop of Detroit. It held its first mass Nov. 27, 1920, in a small church on the corner of Union and Dodge Streets, which had been purchased from another denomination. About 30 families comprised the congregation.

By 1928 The membership had grown so that it was necessary to remodel and enlarge the building. Mass was celebrated in the Schrader Funeral Chapel, while the building was being completed.

Just before Christmas in 1932, the building was destroyed by fire. Within the next year a basement church was completed and was used for worship until 1940. The city of Plymouth now owns the basement building.

In 1949 a temporary church and the first part of the parish school was opened at the present location on the Allen property on Pennington.

Covenant Will Give Cantata

"Infant Jesus," a cantata by Buxtehude, will be sung by the choir of the Evangelical Covenant Church at 3:30 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 13.

Guest violinists will join the choir and Mrs. Betty Anderson, organist, in the performance. Leon Anderson will direct.

The church is located at 2431 W. Eight Mile, Detroit, and the public is invited to attend.

Campus Religion Book Topic

The Eastern Michigan University Press is publishing "Students, Religion and the Contemporary University," a collection of 10 original essays by prominent figures in campus religious life.

Charles E. Minneman, director of religious affairs at Eastern, is the editor. United States Senator Edmund S. Muskie wrote the introduction.

NEW ORGAN -- This Wicks pipe organ will be dedicated in a service at 5 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 13, in Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic Church in Farmington, George Assemany, choir director at Gesu parish in Detroit, will be guest organist, and Donald Zielinski, OLS musical director who is pictured here at the keyboard, will direct the parish choir in Christmas carols and a benediction. Monsignor Thomas P. Beahan, pastor, will officiate at the blessing and dedication ceremony. (Evert photo)
