and Dave Dietz of Reedsburg, Wis. A Chinese method of firing creates the Raku pottery from Kaiser Suidan of Birmingham. Sharon Wittich from Lakeland creates the raffia dolls with palm leaves that come from the west coast of Madagascar. Scherenschnitte is the forte of Melinda Gotteri of Holt, who uses the German paper-cutting technique to create both original and classic designs.

Volunteers are needed

The Michigan Cancer Foundation North Oakland Unit in Pontiac needs volunteers for daytime work. Volunteers perform a variety of activities necessary for cancer patients and their families to receive services. These duties include general office work, community referrals and telephone contact work with patients and health care professionals. On-the-job training will be provided. Interested people should call the North Oakland Office at 332-5620. The Michigan Cancer Foundation is a Torch Drive/United Way agency.

New elements on and off the fashion runway will mark Fash Bash '88 which begins at 5 p.m. Tuesday, July 26, in the Westin Hotel Renaissance Ballroom. This 19th annual Fash Bash, projected to raise $100,000 for the Detroit Institute of Arts, is sponsored by Founders Junior Council, the largest auxiliary of the museum's Founders Society and Hudson's. Gregory F. Gibson, Hudson's store group vice president, said, "Hudson's fall 1988 fashions will be sparked with the wit and originality of ELLE magazine. We also are delighted that two top New York designers will make personal appearances during the fashion show."

TAX-DEDUCTIBLE tickets at $25 each are available at the DIA Ticket Office, Hudson's and other Ticket Master outlets (423-8888), and at the door. Patron tickets for reserved table ringside seating at $50 each are sold through the DIA Ticket Office only. Phone the DIA Ticket Office for information, 832-2730, 9:30 a.m. to 5:15 p.m. daily.

The evening begins with music, cocktails and hors d'oeuvres, and when the doors open, celebrity host Sherry Margolis, WJBK-TV news anchor, and Tom Schoenheit will direct guests to the silent auction where they may bid on more than 100 items.

At 7 p.m., Ernest DuMouchelle of DuMouchelle Galleries, opens the bidding for live auction exotica — an Amsterdam adventure from Northwest Airlines and Hudson's Travel Service; tickets to the 1989 Wimbledon Championships; vacation of your choice — Hong Kong, Rome or a Caribbean cruise; New York trip including lunch and visit to ELLE magazine, plus fine jewelry, art, and children's and cultural packages.

IMMEDIATELY following the live auction, Hudson's will bring down the house with its fall fashion spectacular. Designer Anne Pinkerton has characterized her Fall 1988 collection as consisting of sandwashed silk and cotton gabardine designed for the intelligent, sophisticated and successful woman of today.

Bill Robinson who recently won the 1988 Cutty Sark Award as the outstanding American men's wear designer, designs everything from advanced sportswear to updated classic business suits.

Throughout the evening, attendees may purchase tickets in the Fash Bash raffle at $2 each. Ticket holders have a chance at eight prizes, including a Japanese tanuki for jacket from Blitnick Furs, $2,000 and $1,000 shopping spree at Sidney Krandsall & Sons, and dinner for 10 at Nicky's.
