Former Wayne State University netter Kevin Johnston grabbed a pair of titles last weekend in the Redford Township Parks and Recreation Open adult tennis tournament held at Capitol Park.

Johnston, a native of Plymouth who played at Canton High School, defeated Mark Thomas of Livonia to win the men's singles title, 6-1, 6-0. Johnston also teamed up with Livonia's Vic Moccia to win the men's doubles crown.

Redford's Shawn McGrath and Karen Berry won the mixed doubles crown in three sets.

According to tournament director Fred Campbell, finalists received trophies and $10 gift certificates, courtesy of a local sporting goods store.

Campbell also announced dates (July 22-24) for the Redford Junior/Senior Open at Capitol.

Among the events scheduled are boys and girls 17 singles, senior men's doubles and mixed doubles. Entries are available at the Redford Township Parks and Recreation Department (through Wednesday, July 20).

South surrenders lead to NFWB

South Farmington conceded first place in the Little Caesars Connie Mack League after being dealt its first loss Tuesday by North Farmington-West Bloomfield, 10-5.

NFWB moved into the lead, half a game ahead of South, with an 11-1 record. South, which was coming off a successful weekend in which it won a tournament in Milford, is 10-1 in the league and 13-1 overall.

Leo Hutchison, who will be a senior at Redford Catholic Central in the fall, pitched a complete game for NFWB. He gave up nine hits but walked only two.

Hutchinson's performance included six strikeouts, and he retired the last seven batters in a row.

NFWB catcher Jeff Calcaterra delivered the big blow, a three-run homer that extended his team's lead to 10-5 in the sixth inning.

JASON HICKS, 2-1, suffered the loss after pitching the first 4½ innings. He was charged with six earned runs and seven hits. He did have five strikeouts against one walk, however.

Craig Murray and Joe Jentzer pitched two innings in relief, each giving up two runs to the hard-hitting NFWB lineup.

Leo Devine was 2-for-4 and drove in one run, and Scott Wladichkin, Dave Skown, Jentzer and Jason Lichtman had RBI singles.

South defeated Westland 4-2 and host Huron Valley twice, 5-2 and 8-7, to win a three-team, round-robin tournament on the weekend.

Farmington needed five runs in the last two innings to pull out the victory in the final game.

South trailed 7-3 entering the bottom of the sixth, but Devine's two-run double, coming after RBI singles by pinch-hitter Jeff Skinner and Wladichkin, tied the game.

IN THE SEVENTH, Skown walked and scored the winning run on Jentzer's double. Wladichkin, Skown, Jentzer and Brian Townsley had two hits apiece, and the latter also had one RBI.

Joe Whitefoot, 3-0, picked up the win in relief of starter Mike Dorocak, who went the first 3½ innings. Huron Valley got only one additional run off Whitefoot, who tossed a one-hitter over the final 3½ innings, struck out four and walked one intentionally.

Jentzer also improved his record to 3-0 by beating Huron Valley in the previous contest. He was at the top of his game, going the distance and hurling a two-hitter that included five strikeouts and two walks.

Again, South needed some late runs — this time a four-run seventh — to come from behind and erase a 3-1 deficit.

Wladichkin's RBI single tied the score, and catcher Rob MacDonald's two-run single sent South into the lead. Skown's fourth-inning single knocked in South's first run.

In the opening game with Westland, Devine's solo homer and Skown's RBI double gave South a 3-0 lead. Skown and Whitefoot also had RBI singles.

LIGHTMAN, MAKING his first start, was the winner. He left at the end of four innings with the 3-0 advantage, having held Westland to four hits.

Whitefoot pitched two innings of relief, and Murray worked the seventh inning for his fourth save.

NFWB gets Mack win

Before pulling out of its slump on Sunday, NFWB suffered a 12-3 defeat at the hands of Waterford in a Palmino game Saturday. The visitors wiped out a 1-0 NFWB lead with a seven-run second.

Starting pitcher Todd Kaluzny was knocked out of the box in the second inning after allowing seven runs on five hits. Tim McEvilly went the next 4½ innings, and Orman finished the last inning.

Jeff Kovlak was 2-for-3, Petty had a triple and an RBI and Jay Marcoux and Rachner drove in the other runs. Brian Lance, Petty and Kovlak scored the runs.

turned out to be a wise one.

Craig Perret, who won the Mile on Tom Tulle in 1974, will ride Lost Code, one of the leading riders in the country. Perret also rode Bet Twice, which lost by a head at the Preakness.

MILE OFFICIALS have conceded that Lost Code, son of former Preakness winner Codrus, is the best to invade the Livonia track since Damascus in 1968.

Damascus, the top 3-year-old in 1967, was upset in the '68 Mile by Nodouble.

The competition is slim for the Mile, but here is a list of potential entries.

• De Jeau: The 6-year-old is one of best Michigan-bred horses of all time. Owned by West Bloomfield's

J.V. Sanders and trained by son Greg Sanders and Henry Cochran. De Jeau captured the Michigan Breeders' Governors Cup by an impressive three lengths. Westland's Richard DePass, one of the top jockeys at DRG, will be the rider.

• Badwagon Harry: The 9-year-old won the 1985 Mile and is the richest of all Michigan thoroughbreds with over $730,000 in career earnings.

• Other hopefuls: Momamurari, a four-year-old out of Churchill Downs; Nyssia, a 4-year-old out of Thistle Down in Cleveland; Noble Regent, a 6-year-old out of Canada.

THE FIRST RACE begins at 1 p.m. Post time for the Mile is approximately 5:40 p.m.

SF softball runner-up

South Farmington took runnerup honors Sunday in the Inter-Lakes Youth Softball Tournament for under-10 girls Midget Division ballclubs. South eliminated Garden City in the semifinals before bowing to host Walled Lake in the final of the double-elimination tournament.

Holly Foster led the South hitting attack with four home runs. Others belting round-trippers included Tamara Dominick, Jennifer Myslinski and Amy St. Charles. Diana Dickow, Becky Pesci and Dominick handled the pitching duties.

The tournament served as preparation for the state tournament, which will be played in Rochester on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, July 22-24.

Final tuneups will come Saturday, July 16, when South plays Walled Lake at 10 a.m. and Thursday, July 21, when the team takes on Garden City at 7 p.m. Both games will be played at City Park.

South team members include Christine Barringer, Dickow, Dominick, Foster, Amy Geary, Alana Heikkinen, Kristen Kozlarski, Ellen Kozlowski, Katherine Lukasak, Dorrine McLean, Myslinski, Pesci, Kristen Schlot, Sarah Shelters and St. Charles. The team is managed by Karl Geary.
