How to keep HER FINGERS WARM

Not with gloves, silly. With our rings. Our gorgeous, splurvy, incredible rings to warm her fingers. And her eyes.

You might say holiday has with breathtaking ruby crystal rings. Or a heating great chunk of uncut diamonds. Or such unusual as lavender Kinnikinnick. Or beryl that sparkle like tropical sunshine. And her eyes.

Of course we have a fabulous collection of diamonds. One-Quarter to Umpteen carats in size.

All of our rings are one-of-a-kind. Designed and created by us. With artistry and imagination, whether classic and classic or knockout avant garde.

TOYS FOR TOTS—Farmington Elks and government officials get together to encourage residents to participate in the "Toys for Tots" campaign sponsored by the Farmington Elks and U. S. Marine Corps Reserve. Workers are needed to sort and pack toys on Monday, Tuesday and Thursdays starting at 7:30 p.m. in the Elks Lodge on Orchard Lake south of 10 Mile. Shown from left are: Col. Ronald Spjeldest, USMCR; Township Supervisor Earl Teeple; Elks Exalted Ruler James Brodel; Mayor Wilbur Brotherton; William Gardner, Toys for Tots chairman; and City Manager John Dinan. The young boy is Todd Spjeldest. (Evert photo)

Farmington Calendar

TOWNSHIP OFFICES CLOSED
Farmington Township administrative offices will be closed because of the holiday season on Dec. 24, 25 and Dec. 31 and Jan. 1.

QUAKERTOWN QUESTERS
Dec. 16. The Quakertown Questers, an antique study group, will hold its annual Christmas luncheon in the home of Mrs. John Bowden of 29131 Bannockburn, Farmington, beginning at 12:30 p.m. Each member is asked to bring an antique or handmade craft for the traditional auction. Auction proceeds are given to the Farmington District Library to be used toward the purchase of books on antiques.

SWIMMING CANCELLED
Dec. 17. There will be no recreational swimming at either North Farmington High School or Farmington High School because of swim meets scheduled at the pools.

BLUE STAR MOTHERS
Dec. 17. Blue Star Mothers of America, Farmington Chapter 49, will hold a potluck dinner at 11 a.m. in the Farmington Community Center. There will be a gift exchange and election of officers for members only.

SENIOR CITIZENS SOCIAL CLUB
Dec. 18. The Senior Citizens Social Club of Farmington will meet in the First United Methodist Church social room on Grand River. Bring a sandwich and a dollar gift. A social afternoon with the gift exchange will follow the business meeting.

CENTER CAROL SING
Dec. 18. Farmington is invited to an old-fashioned carol sing to be held on the terrace of the Farmington Community Center at 8 p.m. and conducted by Max Davey. Coffee and hot chocolate will be served inside after the program. The center is on Farmington Rd. north of 10 Mile.

SCHOOL CLOSING
Dec. 18. Last day of school in Farmington School District before winter vacation. Classes will resume Jan. 4.

DISPLAY DOLL FURNITURE
All during the holiday season, Mrs. Robert Throgmorton's unique collection of doll furniture and apple dolls will be on display in the Farmington Community Center. Everyone is invited to drop by to see them and enjoy the decorations created for the center by a number of community groups.

LICENSE BRANCH CLOSED
The Secretary of State's branch selling automobile license plates in Farmington at 33204 Grand River will be closed on Dec. 26 and Jan. 2 because of the holidays.

Pianist Helps

Mrs. Marian McCracken's fifth and sixth graders at Eagle Elementary School in Farmington have been rehearsing Victor Herbert's operetta, "The Fortune Teller."

They have received the help of Mrs. Delight King, who comes to the school four mornings a week to accompany the vocalists on the piano.
