The Farmington Drop-In Center has lost another one of its members, James Farant, after a lingering illness. Jim had lived with daughter Jean and husband Robert Frieing at 2548 Farmington Rd. the past few years.

Jim was from New Jersey. He had celebrated his 80th birthday Oct. 30. His many friends will miss him at the Drop-In Center. Our deepest sympathy goes to his family.

THE FARMINGTON Drop-In Center was host Dec. 7 to 19 senior citizens from Dexter.

The Masonic ladies of Farmington catered the luncheon. Christmas music was played by Mildred White after lunch. Cards and conversation were greatly enjoyed. Prizes were awarded to many of the members.

Everyone had an enjoyable afternoon thanks to the efforts of President Marie Faunce with all the Christmas decorations on the tables and the special touch that she is so talented for.

Don't forget on Dec. 14 the Drop-In Center will hold its pot luck luncheon and gift exchange in the Masonic Temple. Please bring a covered dish and a dollar gift. From 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. cards will be enjoyed. Join us for a pleasant afternoon. You may phone Betty Lowe GR 4-1060 or Marie Faunce 476-9238.

Dems Raise Funds For Library Books

FARMINGTON A fund-raising drive to purchase books for the Farmington District Library has been launched by the Farmington Democratic Club.

The library project is the Democratic Club's way of paying tribute to the late Harold Shpiece, former chairman of the club and community leader.

Democratic Club chairman Al Sipher has named Harry Zuchlinski and Aldo Vagnozzi as a committee to carry out the fund drive.

PERSONS INTERESTED in donating to the fund can do so by sending a check made out to the Farmington Democratic Club-Shpiece Fund and mailing it to Harry Zuchlinski, 30040 Northbrook, Farmington, Mich. 48024.

"Our plan is to use the fund to purchase books for the library which exemplify Harold's concern for community and political activity," said Zuchlinski.

"Harold's major contribution to Farmington was his belief that citizens of a community owed that community the duty of political participation even though that participation was on behalf of a minority position," declared Vagnozzi in a memorial tribute to Shpiece.

"It was in that spirit that Harold ran for Township justice of the peace and Township supervisor and encouraged others to run for offices where frankly the chances of winning weren't that good."

AFTER CITING Harold Shpiece's work in the Beechview PTA and Indian Guides, Vagnozzi said:

"At the same time Harold traveled the avenue of politics as chairman of the Farmington Democratic Club during a period when the in Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital for several months but is now at home under the care of a nurse.

We also wish Shirley Leach of Power Rd. a quick recovery from the painful broken toe she suffered recently. Shirley's foot is tightly taped to heal the break.

December birthdays at the Drop-In Center are: Estelle Flood, Dec. 9; Muriel Jacobson, Dec. 4; Zelma Kettenbell, Dec. 14; Thomas Sheedy, Dec. 21; Callie Briggs, Dec. 17; Evelyn Danielson, Dec. 9; Lena Toliver, Dec. 20; Eugenia Menzinski, Dec. 30 and Caroline Wingert, Dec. 30.
