Readers' questions answered

Designing Ways will now be a feature in the Thursday edition of the Observer and Eccentric Newspapers. It previously appeared on Mondays.

I SPENT the last two weeks of July in California. In a future column I will tell you about my finds, today I will answer some of the questions in my mail.

I received a letter from a reader who is adding to an existing bathroom and is concerned about getting enough light. A skylight would be a good addition. In our Florida home, the addition of skylights in two windowless bathrooms added the light we needed.

Another reader who moved here recently would like a recommendation for a designer from a furniture store. Most large furniture stores have designers. I like Gorman's Furniture Galleries and Englanders Furniture Co. Both have been in business for many years and have excellent reputations. I know some of their designers personally, and I think you would be pleased with any of them.

A third reader requests help locating unfinished plantation shutters. Darsel Lumber in Berkeley carries them. They were very helpful. They also offer installation service.

The next column will be devoted to my California trip.

Eve Garvin has been an interior designer in the area for several years. She welcomes comments and questions from readers. Send those to her in care of this newspaper, 36251 Schoolcraft Road, Livonia 48150.

Windemere is more...

much more than a convalescent home
or home for seniors

Windemere is truly a very special place.

Includes exceptional skilled care nursing and medical services while preserving the environmental characteristics of a Herman Frankel Organization Residential Community. There is complete separation between the SHELLED CARE NURSING RESIDENCE on the upper floor and the SUPPORTIVE CARE RESIDENCE on the lower floor. The Shelled location gives both levels direct access to the lavishly landscaped grounds. Rex Lacey, a caring nursing home professional, and Herman Frankel, a residential developer combined their skills to provide superior nursing and medical services in a residential environment that preserves dignity, beauty, and maximum independence. WINDEMERE serves the needs of those requiring state-of-the-art nursing and medical services and WINDEMERE MANOR provides a warm, inviting residential environment with nursing and medical services equally available on an as-needed basis. Would you care to visit Windemere? You must see it to appreciate what it offers. Please drop in or call 846-5770 for an appointment.

Madonna College instructor displays watercolor works

Madonna College art instructor Marjorie Chellstorp will display her realistic and abstract watercolors in the college's Exhibit Gallery through Thursday, Sept. 29.

Chellstorp has exhibited works both statewide and nationally and has won many awards and commissions in juried exhibitions. She is represented in galleries and numerous private collections in Michigan, throughout the country and in Europe.

"In watercolors, my concern has been to create an illusion of space on a flat surface and to present subtle color blends using transparent color glazes," said Chellstorp. "For me, the process of painting seems to be a dialogue between myself and the paint, canvas or paper."

"I spend a lot of time looking at what is happening and responding to what it says to me. Sometimes an impasse is reached, but at other times it all comes together and what is there seems to have a vitality of life of its own. It is for these elusive moments that I paint."

A watercolor demonstration will be held at 10 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 15, in Room 177.

Admission is free and open to the public for the demonstration and exhibit. Exhibit Gallery hours are 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Friday, and 1-4 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

For information, call 591-5187. Madonna College is at I-96 and Levan Road, in Livonia.
