Opera Friends repeat 'Tribute to Caruso'

The newly formed "Friends of the Opera" will present a Tribute to Caruso Concert at 7:30 p.m. Sept. 15 in the Henry Ford Centennial Library Auditorium, Michigan Avenue between Greenfield and Southfield in Dearborn. The concert is a repeat performance of the group's June premiere brought back by popular demand.

Featured are three vocalists, a harpist and a violinist, all accompanied by piano. The program includes selections by Verdi, Puccini, Bizet, Bellini and Beethoven in many different combinations of instruments and voices. Some popular Neapolitan songs which Caruso loved to sing will also be presented in this unusual concert. To honor the event, Dearborn Mayor Michael Guido has proclaimed Sept. 15 "Caruso Day" in Dearborn.

The artists are: soprano Jan Rae of Farmington Hills, mezzo soprano Christina Lybecky of Warren, baritone Quinto Millio of Dearborn, harpist Kerstin Allvin of Bloomfield Hills, violinist Peruz Zerounian of Royal Oak and pianist Bernie Katz of Detroit.

Friends of the Opera was founded by Enrica Piccirilli-DeVito in memory of her father, who belonged to a similar group in Italy. It is a non-profit society which will foster and spread the appreciation of opera, primarily through study groups and concerting. Club members will gather to listen to and discuss operas in an informal setting. The concept is quite unique and will provide a non-threatening and inexpensive way for novices to learn about opera and enjoy it in a congenial atmosphere. Concert programming and production will be another important function of the new group, as they foster new talent and provide opera to the public at reasonable prices.

In addition to the enjoyment of music, there will also be free refreshments after the concert. Tickets for the affair are a hospitable $5; they are available at the door. For more information, call 582-8928.

Fresco film at DIA

A locally produced film about two artists and the art of fresco is to be shown this weekend at the Detroit Institute of Arts.

The 10-minute film, titled "Fresco Friends of Lucienne Bloch and Stephen Pope Dimitroff," will be shown at 3 p.m. Sunday in the Holley Room at the Detroit Institute of Arts, 9200 Woodward, in Detroit's Cultural Center.

The film centers on Bloch and Dimitroff, the husband and wife team of artists and fresco creators. They met while working for Diego Rivera, the celebrated Mexican muralist, and have done frescoes around the world.

They returned to Detroit for a Rivera retrospective show at the

DIA, then were hired last year to clean the DIA's Rivera mural, "Detroit Industry."

Bloch and Dimitroff have taught fresco for 50 years, and the film includes footage of their seminars and interviews.

Fresco is a technique of grinding and applying color pigment to moist, lime-plastered wall. The color becomes part of the wall.

It is a difficult technique though Pope and Dimitroff have stimulated interest in fresco locally.

The film was put together by Denise Swope of Canton, Terry Kelley of Milford and Jean Poulet of Livonia. The Fresco Friends are trying to raise money for the pair to do a fresco locally.
