Preps get ready for big weekend

serverland swimming and cross country teams.

The Western Lakes Activities Association will have its annual glirs swimming relays at Plymouth Salem, and Schooleraft Coflege will host its 22nd cross country invitational.

The swim competition begins at 1:50 p.m. Salurday. The cross country gets started earlier the same day with the glits race at 9 a.m. and the boys event at 9:50 and more and the boys event at 9:50 and more and the total start of the same day with the glits race at 9 a.m. North Farmington won the WLAA swim relays last September and went on to claim the league championship in November.

The Raiders, who became the only team other than Livola Sievenson to win the relays and later unscated the Spartans as WLAA champ, are minus All-America Cindy Crumer this year and don't have the veteran team they did a year ago.

NONETHELESS, the Raiders, with swimmers such as Kerry Doran, Laurie Oswald and Christie Duthle, will be one of the teams to watch in the relays, which serves as a tune-up for the dual-meet season. In addition to Stevenson, other top contenders appear to be Plymouth Canton, which features two all-area swimmers in Nicole Drake and Cassie Cummins, Livonia Churchill and Northville. breaststroke, 400 individual medley and cres-cendo relays. Salem's Dawn Shiek and Jodi Thomas return from the team that won the cendo reasys. Salem: Salem that won the 200 freestyle.

Churchill was third, followed by Canton, Northville, Salem, Harrison and Westland John Glenn in the top eight places.

In cross country, Farmington will attempt to win its fifth consecutive boys championship at Schoolcraft. Coach Jerry Young to optimistic after his team finished third in the West Bloomfield Invitational.

"We have a couple kids with knee problems," he sald. "If we keep them healthy between now and Saturday, I think we've got a pretty good shot."

The Falcons are led by seniors Brad Moore and Paul Brandt and sophomore Ben Goba.

Walled Lake Western may have the best runner in the state in senior Brian Grosso, who was runner-up last year.
O'THER CHALLENGES could come from Plymouth Canton, the 1987 runner-up, Plymouth Salem and Wayne Memorial.
Defending WLAA champlon Canton looms as the favorite to repeat as the girls winner. Fourth-place Lori Penland, Lynda Scheed, Missy Jasnowski, Sherry Figurski and Cathy McCabe scored for the Chiefa last year, and all but Figurski are back this season.
Farmington, second a year ago, abould be among the contenders again, and Michelle Gayney of Redford Bishop Borgess returns to defend her individual title.

Farmington collects 2 wins

Farmington High won twice last week in boys soccer — one win decided in a blowout, the other by one goal.

On Friday, host Farmington shut out Pinckney 10-0 behind the five-goal, three-assist effort of Pete Frauenheim. The Falcons, who led 4-0 a balltime, also got two goals from Jeff Childress and one goal each from Tim Shelton, Joe Crowe and Pete Einnagrah. Crowe also had two assists. Mike Sheehy and Greg Bjedov played one half each in the nets for Farmington to share the shutout.

Walled Lake Western provided a much more difficult test Wednesday at Farmington. The Falcons prevailed 2-1 on a late goal by Mike Gammerath. Crowe scored the game's first goal on an assist by Frauenheim. Western tied the game when it scored on its only shot, the result of a deflection in front of goalkeeper Sheehy. The Falcons bombarded Western with 25 shots.
