will present its newest production at 3 p.m. Sept. 24, at Westminster Church in Detroit. The group will perform "Chinamen," a one-act play by Michael Frayn, and "Signs of the Time," an adaptation of works by Peg Kehrer. In the tradition of "Children of a Lesser God," the performers will use sign language and voice simultaneously. Interpreters will not be used. Tickets are $5, $6 at the door. For additional information or to purchase tickets, call 478-7187 (voice), or 941-5213 (TDD).

PIANO STYLINGS

Jim Bajor has introduced his New Age piano stylings to Detroit's Caucus Club. Bajor has been a favorite of WNIC's "Pillow Talk" listeners, who have been regularly requesting his music. His first album, "Awakening," has sold well locally, and his new album, "Gentle Images," is receiving critical acclaim. He performs at 8:30 and 10 p.m. shows Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday. Also, Sheri Nichols continues her one-woman cabaret revue, "Star Quality," on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights. For reservations and more information, call 988-4970.

'VIRGINIA WOOLE'

West End productions presents

"Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf," drama classic by Edward Albee, at 8 p.m. except for 2 p.m. Sundays, from Thursday, Oct. 6, to Sunday, Oct. 16, at the Performance Network in Ann Arbor. Tickets are $8 for adults, $6 for students and seniors. For reservations, call 435-7559 or 653-0581.

PLAYS PALACE

Rocker Rod Stewart comes to the Palace of Auburn Hills for a performance at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 18. Tickets at $18.50 (reserved) may be purchased at all Ticketmaster outlets including Hudson's and select AAA locations. Tickets may also be charged by calling 423-8866. For more than two decades, Stewart has been a rock star. The singer/songwriter has released 22 albums, both solo and (early in his career) as a member of the Faces and the Jeff Beck Group. His current LP "Out of Order," containing the hit single "Forever Young," is rapidly climbing Billboard's Top Pop Album chart.

GALA FUND-RAISER

What do the London Chap House, walk-through light sculptures, reggae band, a laser show and a trip to Tahiti have in common? All will be a part of "Hi Energy/Light and Motion," a gala fund-raiser for WTVS/Channel 56, on Friday, Sept. 23, at the American Center Building in Southfield. The event, sponsored by the Fan Club of Metropolitan Detroit, will offer guests food, entertainment and prizes. General admission tickets are $50 per person, which includes all food, beverages and entertainment. Patron tickets are $250 per couple. Contact Patti Duch at 875-7200 Monday through Friday for reservations.

Variety's Kids

With 53 chapters operating in 10 countries, Variety Clubs International surely deserves to be known as the greatest children's charity in the world — an organization of volunteers solely devoted to helping sick, handicapped and underprivileged children. Variety's accomplishments are a true inspiration.

In 1988, as this unique charity celebrates its 61st year of service, both the Drexel Burnham Foundation and the Milken Family Foundation are proud to support its noble and humanitarian efforts. To help raise awareness of Variety's work, the Foundations sponsored outings and events last year in some 35 cities around the country involving thousands of children.

Again this year, our employees and their families will participate together with Variety's Kids in trips to circuses, zoos and amusement parks, picnics and football games. We've gotten involved — find out how you can. For more information about your local Variety Club, please call 1-800-822-9949.
