Herbal wreaths made in October workshops

Herbal Wreathmaking workshops, a long-time fall activity led by Ruth McKinnon in First Presbyterian Church of Farmington, has a something new added this year. Those who want to check in a half-hour early before the workshops begin can get a lesson on how to make a variety of ribbon bows, including some of the newest styles made from colored twisted paper.

"The herbs are absolutely beautiful this year," McKinnon said of the materials she's gathered for the herbal wreaths that are made exactly as those seen in Greenfield Village during the holiday season. "To avoid a shortage of herbs, due to the hot dry spell, the suppliers set up a special irrigation watering system for us," she said.

Classes begin at 7 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 20; and at 9:30 a.m. Friday and Saturday, Oct. 21-22 in the church at 28165 Farmington Road.

Some health plans are like hospital gowns: They never cover as much as you wish they would.

When it comes to health care, traditional medical insurance leaves a lot to be desired. Because they only cover a portion of your costs. Health Alliance Plan, on the other hand, is much more comprehensive. We offer complete coverage for virtually everything from pediatrics to geriatrics. And this extensive medical coverage is available from over 1,600 physicians at 23 medical centers, 18 hospitals and hundreds of individual doctor's office locations.

To find out how you can become a member, call 872-8100. You'll learn why Health Alliance Plan is such a great way to cover your medical needs. And that's the naked truth.
