● PHONY BILLS
Farmington Hills police warn merchants to be on the lookout for counterfeit money after passage of two phony bills in the past month in businesses along southeast Grand River.

River.

A counterfeit $20 bill was passed
Sept. 13 in a doughnut shop. On Oct.
5, a counterfeit $10 bill was passed
at a gas station.

"Be alert for corners of different denominations being placed on a bill of a lesser amount," said Sgt. Charles Nebus of the Farmington Hills Police Department. "The phooy bills are actually easy to spot if the person receiving them takes a few seconds to look at them," takes a few seconds to look at mem, he added.

The police are working with the Secret Service to find the phony-bill
