

North, Glenn are combatants in big showdown

By Brad Emmons
and Dan O'Meara
staff writers

ALL EYES WILL BE focused on the football game Friday at the Western Lakes Activities Association-Lakes Division showdown between two unbeaten North Farmington (6-0) at Westland John Glenn (4-1).

The winner will more than likely face Farmington Harrison the following week. The unbeaten Hawks, rated No. 1 in Class B, should wrap up another WLAAs Division crown this week at Livonia Churchill.

There have been some epic North Glenn struggles over the years. Glenn won last year's battle at North.

Two years ago at Glenn, Scott Selzer, now a sophomore running back at Michigan State, ran for 203 yards in a 9-7 North victory.

When Tony Boles, now a starting tailback at Michigan, was a senior at Glenn, the Rockets prevailed. That was three years ago.

The homefield advantage hasn't meant much of late.

BUT THE MOST memorable game between the two occurred in 1978 when both teams went into the clash unbeaten. North won the game, 9-7, and went on to reach the state Class A championship game before losing to Traverse City.

It was unfortunate that Glenn, which finished 8-1, could not obtain enough playoff points to qualify for the then eight-team state tournament.

The two may have met again. Meanwhile, two other crowns are up for stake, including the North-West Suburban League title, where Redford Union travels Friday to Woodhaven; and the Catholic League's C-Section Division, where Redford St. Agatha goes Sunday to Center Line St. Clement.

Changing subjects, your expert prognosticators Dan O'Meara and Brad Emmons went 12-2 and 11-3, respectively. O'Meara increased his lead, sporting an overall mark of 70-18, while Emmons is 64-24.

Here goes our picks for Week No. 7:

FRIDAY'S GAMES

(all 7:30 p.m. unless noted)

Liv. Clarensville at Hamtramck (4 p.m.): The Trojans (4-2, 3-2) earned a satisfying Metro Conference win last week over Bloomfield Hills Cranbrook. Tailback Andy Weighall should have another big day against the host Cosmos, who are bringing up the rear in the Metro (0-5). Pick: The long ride is worth it for Clarensville.

Redford Thurston at Taylor Kennedy (4 p.m.): Winless Thurston has lacked the big play all season. Kennedy (3-3, 2-2) was blanked last week against Taylor Truman. Don't expect many points to be scored in this one. Pick: The winning touch still eludes the Eagles.

Farm. Harrison at Liv. Churchill: The last time Churchill beat Harrison was when John Stolskiadis, now a starting defensive back at Eastern Michigan, was the Chargers' quarterback. What's the possibility of deja vu? Churchill's secondary North Farmington was seventh in the Class A poll regional at Pontiac County Club last Friday. The Raiders were led by Scott Mittens and Larry LaPera, both of whom shot 84.

"We accomplished more than people thought we would at the beginning of the season," North coach Dick Wilson said. "We played some real good golf, but we had a slump there (near the end of the season)."

"But we never expected to be second in Oakland County. That and winning the Lakes (Division) were the highlights."

In the Western Lakes Activities Association tournament Monday at Elmer Meadows, North was sixth (43), Farmington sixth (43) and Harrison 12th (41).

Following are the individual scores for each team:

North: Larry LaPera, 82; Dave Scholt, 82; Tom Sammet, 82; Rob Ward, 82; Scott Mittens, 82.

Farmington: Brian Link, 82; Adam Hibbs, 82; Chris Zarek, 82; Tim True, 87; Brian DeSantis, 97.

Harrison: Tim Story, 85; John Hagopian, 84; Derek Sondergaard, 80; Ken Pellegrino, 100; Steve Hagopian, 100.

could be in for a long night. Pick: The Hawks will prey on another WLAAs foe.

Liv. Franklin at Pky. Canton: Franklin (4-2, 3-1) could clinch second place in the Western Division against the Chiefs (1-5, 1-3). The Patriots got their running game going last week against Northville in a 22-6 win. Franklin linebacker Greg Panz is leading an improved Pats' defense. Pick: Don't bet the mortgage on Franklin, but put in a down payment.

Liv. Stevenson at Walled Lake Central: The Spartans (2-4, 1-3) are now aiming for a 5-4 season after snapping in the four-game losing streak last week against Farmington. The return of two-way All-Oberon back Rick Chasko, coming off a shoulder injury, should give Stevenson the edge over Central (1-5, 1-3). Pick: Stevenson makes it two straight against the Vikings.

N. Farmington at Westland Glenn: A grid predictions

It is at stake in this one, including a berth in the WLAAs championship, a boost in the state playoff ratings and a spoils record. The team with the better passing game may have the edge. Pick: Take Glenn at home.

Redford Union at Woodhaven: The Panthers (4-2, 2-1) have a shot at the Northwest Suburban League crown, but must do it on the road. Woodhaven (3-3, 3-0) is coming off a disappointing 20-8 loss to Pinckney. Pick: RU gains a share of the NSL crown.

Trenton at Wayne Memorial: Trenton (3-3, 3-2) posted an impressive 20-0 win last week over Dearborn Fordson as backs Joe Surawec and Jerry Hoppes each went over 100 yards. Wayne (3-3, 2-3) is explosive, but inconsistent. The Zebras are hoping things don't come down to the kicking game, which has been a season-long sore spot. Pick: Trenton escapes with a win, according to Emmons, but the Zebras pull a surprise, O'Meara says.

SATURDAY'S GAMES
(all games at 1 p.m. unless noted)

Pky. Salem at Farmington: It's been a disappointing two weeks for the Rocks (4-2, 2-2), who lost a tough one in overtime to North before last week's 32-6 trouncing at the hands of John Glenn. Winless Farmington could make first-year coach Rick Miltzer a happy man with a victory. Pick: No upset here as Salem regroup.

Bishop Borgess vs. Warren DeLaSalle (1 p.m. at GC Junior High): The Pilots (4-2, 1-2) fly into town with a 10-6 win the previous week over Harper Woods Notre Dame. Meanwhile, the Spartans (1-5, 1-2) hope their offense can get untracked, having scored only 30 points all season. Pick: DeLaSalle keeps its Catholic League wild card chances alive.

Garden City at Dearborn (1:30 p.m.): Each team is trying to avoid the basement in the NSL. GC (1-5, 0-3) and Dearborn (1-5, 0-3) appear to be evenly matched. A coin loss may be in order. Pick: The host Panthers have the edge.

Redford CC vs. Harper Woods ND

(7:30 p.m. at Clarensville): It was 1985 and Redford Catholic Central had come off a big win over Brother Rice in the Boys Bowl. The next week the Shamrocks were stunned by underdog Notre Dame, 7-6. The same scenario exists leading up to this one. CC is unbeaten and looking better every week. Notre Dame (1-2, 2-4) has a deceiving record. Pick: A little deja vu for the Irish? Not this time.

SUNDAY'S GAME

Redford St. Agatha vs. C.L. St. Clement (2:30 p.m. at Center Line Memorial): This is a big one for both teams. A trip to the Catholic League's C-D Division final is on the line, not to mention a trip to the Pontiac Silverdome as well. The scouting report says St. Clement (5-1, 3-0) likes to throw the ball. Agatha (4-2, 3-0) must be prepared for the aerial assault. Pick: It's a close shave, but Emmons likes (Matt) Schick and the Apples. O'Meara gives the edge to the Crusaders.
