Livodia Franklin coach Armand Vigna was suffering from pneumonia Saturday.

By the end of the afternoon, however, he probably felt better than Korth Farmington coach Jim O'Leary, whose team was upset by the Patriots.

Franklin edged North 13-12 in a Western Lake Activities Association crossover game that nearly end in favor of the visiting Radders.

With two seconds left in the game, North blocked Mike Patsch's pun indied Franklin's 5-yard line. An alert Joe Ranniey leid on the ball, however, for the Patriots at the 2, ending he game the property of th
