NEW IN TOWN

Anita Baydoun of Farmington Hills owns and operates Decorating Den of Michigan's new Northville franchise.

Decorating Den boasts 26 franchises in Michigan and 700 nationally. It is the nation's ninth fastest-growing franchise operation.

Franchise holders are professionally trained decorators who travel to a customer's home with 5,000 samples of draperies, wallcoverings, floor coverings, furniture and accessories in a specially equipped Color-Van.

Baydoun's service includes interior or decorating consultations at no fee. This allows customers to enjoy the convenience of reviewing samples in their homes, avoiding the time-consuming job of going store-to-store trying to match colors and fabrics.

Baydoun studied interior design at Henry Ford Community College and attended the University of Central Florida. She is participating in a four-year training program to become a Decorating Den certified designer.

EARN'S CERTIFICATION

James West, vice president and director of advanced development at Perceptron Inc. in Farmington Hills, was awarded "Certification by Statute" by the Machine Vision Association of the Society of Manufacturing Engineers (MVA/SME).

Certification formally recognizes West as a certified manufacturing engineer in machine vision.

West is one of 51 professionals to receive "Certification by Statute," based on a strict set of criteria. Recipients must demonstrate at least seven years of experience in machine vision, substantiated further by at least three testimonial letters from peers.

Applicants were selected by the MVA/SME certification committee with final approval coming from the board of directors.

MVA/SME is an individual member association dedicated to the use of machine vision technology in manufacturing to improve quality and productivity.
