Snideman-Hanley

Sandra Louise Hanley and James Edward Snideman were married in St. Alexander Catholic Church. She is the daughter of Marie Hanley of Farmington Hills and he is the son of Barbara Snideman of Union Lake.

The bride's gown of white satin, tulle and organza was fashioned with high neck, long fitted sleeves and dropped waist, trimmed with lace and sparkled with tiny sequins and beading. The softly gathered skirt was edged in scalloped lace and flowed into a cathedral train. Her finger-tip veil was held in place with a matching headpiece while she carried white roses and baby's breath.

She was escorted down the aisle by her brother, Kirk Hanley.

Lord Stevens served as her sister's maid of honor with bridesmaids Jacqueline Long, Patricia Hanley, Annette Siltmac and JoAnne Flatley.

D.J. Siltmac served as best man with ushers Robert Snideman, Kirk Hanley, Keli Hanley and David Flatley.

The bride's niece and nephew, Erin Stevens and Christopher Stevens, were the flower girl and ring bearer.

The couple honeymooned in New England and are now at home in Union Lake.

Horton-Land

Lorraine Marie Land and Charles Ellis Horton Jr. were married by the Rev. Norbert Kendzierski in St. Fabian Catholic Church, Farmington Hills. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Land of Farmington Hills and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Horton of Morganon, N.C.

The bride wore a gown of white satin and chantly lace. The fitted bodice was molded in lace over satin with scattered pearls and fashioned with a high neckline of illusion lace and pearls and long, puff sleeves. The basque waistline held a full satin skirt flowing into a chapel-length train. She wore a pearl and silk flowered headpiece holding her veil of illusion and scattered pearls.

Becky Land served as her sister's maid of honor with bridesmaids Lisa Miller, Michele Puzsar, Sarah Flagg, Danielle Geryan and Paige Young, all of Farmington Hills; Melissa Grimaldi of Canton; and Beth Horton, sister of the groom. They wore tea-length gowns of peach lace over satin with handkerchief hem.

The bride's sister, Tricia Land, was the flower girl.

The groom's father served as best man with groomsmen John Land, brother of the bride; Joseph Turner of Chicago; Greg Boardman, Todd Greene, Hall Barnes and Rick Hutchins, all of North Carolina; and Brett Smith of Atlanta, Ga.

The bride is a graduate of North Farmington High School and the University of Michigan, employed as an advertising sales representative for The Value Shopper in San Diego, Calif.

The groom is a graduate of Freedom High School in North Carolina and the University of North Carolina, employed with Drexel Heritage.

The couple received guests in Sheraton Oaks ballroom in Novi before leaving on a trip to Cozumel, Mexico. They are now at home in San Diego.

Vallee-Lutz

Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Vallee of Grosse Pointe announce the engagement of their daughter, Janet Sue, to Howard Jeffrey Lutz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joel A. Lutz of Palm Beach, Fla.

Vallee, a resident of Southfield, is a graduate of Wittenberg University and was most recently employed as a furniture sales supervisor for Silvers Inc. in Detroit. Her fiancé, a resident of Farmington Hills, is a graduate of Vassar College and took his master's degree from San Francisco State University. He is vice president of Lutz News Co.

A May, 1989, wedding is planned.

Hood-Oswald

Carol Lynn Oswald and Robert Charles Hood Jr. were married by the Rev. Norbert Kendzierski in St.

Fabian Catholic Church. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Oswald of Farmington Hills and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hood of Farmington Hills.

The bride wore a white satin gown fashioned with an Alconon lace bodice and appliques of lace on the chapel length train. A crown of crystal was attached to her finger-tip length veil.

Kristin Oswald served as maid of honor with bridesmaids Nancy Misner, Saundra Hood, Jeanette Hood, Laurie Oswald and Sharon Carvill.

Brian Hood was his brother's best man who served with groomsmen Robert Schmidt, David Oswald, Curt Sign, Tim Thibodeau and Chris Moore.

The couple received guests for dinner and dancing in Glen Oaks Country Club before leaving on a honeymoon to Jamaica and Florida.

The couple now reside in Farmington Hills.

Bowditch-Follis

Annette L. Follis and Brian T. Bowditch were married in Christ

Our Savior Lutheran Church in Livonia. She is the daughter of Carl Follis of Royal Oak and Dolores Follis of Clawson. He is the son of William and Audrey Bowditch of Farmington Hills.

The bride is a graduate of Clawson High School and Albion College, employed with Jenison Schools in music education. The groom is a graduate of North Farmington High School, Albion College and Wayne State University Medical School. He is now a first-year medical resident in Grand Rapids.

The couple received guests in Charet of Farmington Hills before leaving on a trip to Cancun, Mexico. They will make their home in the Grand Rapids area.

Ekelman-Liss

Kathleen Kendall Ekelman of Farmington Hills and Jeffrey James Liss of Farmington Hills are planning a mid-November wedding in Messiah Lutheran Church in Fairview Park, Ohio.

She is the daughter of Gilbert and Dorothy Ekelman of Fairview Park and he is the son of Thaddeus and Ella Liss of Dearborn Heights.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of Fairview High School and Bowling Green University, employed with Guardian Alarm in Southfield. Her fiancé is a graduate of Madison Heights Bishop Borgess High School and the University of Michigan-Dearborn, employed by Dec Engineering.
