● Mercy High School is looking for coaches in the following capacities and sports: varsity cheerleading, track assistant and skiing. Send resume to athletic director Suzanne Brown at 29300 11 Mile, Farmington Hills 48018, or call her at 478-2835.

● The Walled Lake School District is looking for coaches in the following sports: JV softball, boys diving, wrestling cheerleading, freshman JV and varsity volleyball and varsity baseball. Interested candidates should call Bob Atkins, athletic director, 624-6694 between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. weekdays.

● YMCA SWIMMING

Boys and girls, age 6-18, are invited to participate in the YMCA swimming program and compete for the Devil Rays swim team.

Youths can sign up for a six-week trial session, which includes competitive strokes and other swimming techniques. The fee for that is $35 and will be applied to the $115 fee for the five-month program if the swimmer decides to continue.

The team practices four times a week and the evening at the YMCA, at 12 Mile and Farmington roads. The Devil Rays are coached by Greg Mailleur. To sign up, call Jean Warren at the YMCA (553-4020).

● WRESTLING CLINIC

Clarenceville Community Education is sponsoring a wrestling clinic, starting Monday, Nov. 7, and continuing for six weeks, 7-8:30 p.m. every Monday and Wednesday in the high school wrestling room.

The program is designed for sixth, seventh and eighth graders. The cost per student is $18, which includes a T-shirt.

For information call Community Education at 473-6913 or send a check and registration to Clarenceville School District, 20155 Middlebelt, Livonia 48152.

Falcons knock Mercy out of Catholic playoffs

Shawn Dannon and Melissa Ninkovich each scored 12 points Tuesday, leading host Dearborn Divine Child past Farmington Hills Mercy 42-17 in a first-round, Catholic-League girls basketball playoff game.

Divine Child (14-3), the Double-A regular-season champion, plays Livonia Ladywood (12-5) in a second-round game tonight at 5:30 at the University of Detroit's Calihan Hall. Mercy exited the Catholic League playoffs at 5-12 overall.

DC led 23-14 at halftime and was never threatened. Junior center Leo Albrecht paced Mercy with 10 points. Sophomore Susie Atchinson contributed six in her first varsity appearance since being recalled from Mercy's undefeated junior varsity team.

Atchinson made the Marlins' only three-point shot.

"We didn't shoot well enough to beat too many teams tonight," Mercy coach Larry Baker said. "On the other side of the coin, we played pretty good defense. There's not too many that will score 50 points against us."

Orris top scorer in swim meet

Ron Orris captured the Boys Open high-point honors last weekend at the Livonia Spartan Aquatic A-B swim meet held at Oakland Community College.

Six-hundred and ninety swimmers from 35 different teams competed in the meet called the Halloween Fest.

Orris, a student at Plymouth Salem High School, also qualified for the Junior Nationals next March in Pensacola, Fla., by winning the 200-yard individual medley. He also captured the 50, 500 and 1,650 freestyle, along with the 100 butterfly, added a second in the 200 breaststroke and a third in the 100 breaststroke.

Spartan teammate Beth Surwelle took high-point honors in the girls with a victories in the 100 and 200 backstroke. She was second in the 50 freestyle, fourth in the 100 IM and 100 butterfly and sixth in the 100 breaststroke.

JEFF SIEVING of the Clarenceville Swim Club was runner-up in the Boys 10 and under category. He finished first in the 50 and 100 breaststroke, second in the 100 butterfly and third in the 100 IM, 50 butterfly and 200 freestyle.

JV team has perfect mark

Farmington Harrison's junior varsity football team also had an unbeaten, 9-0 season.

The Hawks have won four league championships and five division titles among veteran coaches John Witkowski and Jim Weston.

Harrison, which allowed only 24 points, defeated Southfield 17-0, Farmington 21-6, Northville 16-0, Livonia Franklin 16-6, Walled Lake Western 31-8, Plymouth Canton 7-6, Livonia Church III 37-6, Westland John Glenn 12-9 and West Bloomfield 42-0.

Loss ends season

After coaching football for more than 30 years at Detroit Lutheran West, Dennis Tuomi finally knows what it's like to lie up against the Leopards.

It wasn't a very pleasant experience.

Lutheran West routed Tuomi's newest band of players, host Lutheran Westland, 38-14, in the season finale Saturday for both schools.

West, a Class C school, finished at 5-4 and Class D Westland fell to 2-6.

Tuomi won more than 140 games at Lutheran West, before starting a football program at Lutheran Westland last fall.
