Wanted: funny teens for cable movie

see related story, Page 16C

A summer of fun for local teens found them practicing television shows: "Comedy Zone Part I" and "Dorkie Dancin'."

Well, Kevin Sawicki is leading the action again this fall. He, Nancy Mahalak and Devin Richardson are preparing scripts for "Comedy Zone II." Sawicki is particularly interested in hearing from other teens who have a comedic flair. If you are interested, call him 4-8 p.m. at 553-7341.

Mahalak will work on set design for the skits. She is looking for simple props. Successful comedy depends on timing and clarity of visualization. Your ideas will be very helpful.

Students of the Novi and Farmington school districts' television classes are welcome to be certified in the Community Television Center, which is in MetroVision's administrative building.

Sawicki would like the shows to be produced and crewed by all youths. So call and volunteer your skills. December will find this team collecting their resources. Taping of the programs will begin in January.

Dates to remember:
• Cable Access Committee Meeting, Dec. 6, 7 p.m., SWOCC offices.
• Cable TV publicity seminar (free), 10 a.m. and 7 p.m. Dec. 14; MetroVision, reservations 473-7268.
• Free visit with Santa, 6-8 p.m. Dec. 19, MetroVision/SWOCC community studio tape to be seen on Channel 12. Reservations 473-7268.
