Wolf officially becomes a county commissioner

Donn Wolf took the oath of office as Oakland County commissioner Jan. 5 at ceremonies in Pontiac. He represents the 27th District, which includes Farmington and Farmington Hills.

Wolf, who won a close August primary election against Jody Soronen, coasted to a 3 to 1 victory over his Democratic opponent, Steve Hill, in November. He replaces former commissioner Jack McDonald who, after holding the office for 14 years, decided to run for county prosecutor.

Wolf, a longtime Republican activist, served on the Farmington Hills City Council from 1980 to 1988 and was mayor of the city in 1981.

As county commissioner, Wolf will serve on the General Government and Transportation Committee and the Personnel Committee.
