

Cable's Legislative Forum is a Capitol idea

□ Show helps summer job seekers get an early start, 11C affairs

Legislative Forum is a public affairs television show in a series format. It is produced from the state Capitol. Issues and bills taken up in the Michigan House of Representatives are featured.

The program is aired on Channel 12 the last Tuesday of every month at 8 p.m. Tri-Outlet News will feature segments on public affairs issues. Tri-Outlet News can be seen Monday through Friday at 4 p.m. and 5:55 p.m. on Channel 12.

The last Legislative Forum features new house speaker Lewis N. Dodak discussing issues expected in the Legislature this session.

Please note that the Southwestern Oakland Cable Commission will meet Valentine's Day, Feb. 14, at 4 p.m. at the new commission offices, 35494 Grand River at Drake, Farmington Hills.
