Insurance license goes to Lantto

Bruce Lantto has received his state insurance license and is now a qualified counselor with the credentials to offer Forethought funeral planning at Thayer-Rock Funeral Home, 33603 Grand River, Farmington.

"I feel that this license significantly expands my professional capabilities and understanding so I am better equipped to offer the families we serve a complete range of services," Lantto said.

Forethought funeral planning is an insurance based program for funeral planning before the need arises. It is available only from funeral homes.

Only individuals who have earned their state insurance license can qualify to be counselors and offer the Forethought Life Insurance policies specially designed to guarantee funeral goods and services.
