

Taste Armenian food Award winning pianist to perform

The Preservation of Armenian Heritage Committee of the Alex Manoogian School is hosting "Gastronomical Journey Through Historic Armenia" at 7 p.m. Saturday, March 4, in St. John Armenian Church Cultural Hall, 22001 Northwestern, Southfield. The festival will feature a mock traditional Armenian Village wedding with oud playing and folk dancing. Internationally known mezzo soprano Maro Partamian from New York City will sing. The public is invited to take the journey and savor the food specialties of various regions of historic Armenia. Tickets are $40 per person and $25 for Alex Manoogian School students and alumni.

Scott Holden will perform as a soloist with the Lahser High School Symphony Orchestra in Europe next summer.

Scott Holden, 18-year-old pianist and Lahser High School senior, will give a recital at 3 p.m. Sunday, March 12, at First Baptist Church of Birmingham. His program will include works by Bach, Beethoven, Chopin and Brahms as well as 20th century composers, MacDowell, Rachmaninoff, Prokofiev and Catherine Rollin of Bloomfield Hills.

He won the Michigan Young Musician Competition and was state winner in the National Federation of Music Clubs student auditions. Currently he is preparing to play the Grieg A Minor Piano Concerto with the Lahser High School Symphony Orchestra on its European tour this July with conductor Valerie Palmieri.

He plans to enter the University of Michigan next fall as a piano performance major.

He is a piano student of Blodwyn Strehlson of Huntington Woods and the son of Ellen and Keith Holden of Bloomfield Hills. The recital is open to the public free of charge.

Men, if you're about to turn 18, it's time to register with Selective Service at any U.S. Post Office. It's quick. It's easy. And it's the law.
