

ohn Chambers (left), Target district manager, presen Sister Mary Patricia and Jean Vickers, St. Vincent and Sa th Fisher representatives, with the Target's Project Fami

Target donates $5,000 to center

Target, opening an upscale discount store on the site of the old Grand River Drive-In, will contribute $5,000 to St. Vincent and Sarah Fisher Center in Farmington Hills. Target's Project Family will finance the center's Teen Mother and Infant Parenting Program. Through this program, teen mother can be supported to the strength of th allois. The program serves mothers between 18 and 19 and their infants from across the tri-county area. Target Stores' Project Family is an agency focusing on strengthening and enriching family structure by using preventive programs. The agency is designed to meet the needs of children, young adults and families in need.

needs of children, young audics and families in need. Future funding to St. Vincent and Sarah Fisher Center will be al-located after Target's review of the Teen Mother and Infant Par-enting Program.

TARGET, PLANNING a 105,000-square-foot store, will an-chor the new 300,000-square-foot West River Centre, now under con-struction at Grand River and Nine Mile.

The company will commit $350,000 over the next three years to non-profit organizations to support programs and services to familles. Grants will help support family programs in each of the 13 metro Detroit communities with Tagget store.

ily programs in each of the 13 metro Detroit communities with Target stores. The 21 first-year grants were awarded Feb. 28 to organizations that provide family access to programs ranging from family earlehment, child and neighborhood programs and summer arts. "Target is a store for familles," said George Hile, Target vice president, "The welfare of the people and families who shop and work in our stores is extremely important to us. Strengthening family life supporting non-profit organizations members, and the strength of the control of the

School facility projects meet costs, schedules

Plans are advancing for a new elementary school as ell as building and media center renovations at Farm-well as bullang and means complished.

Both projects are staying within set timelines and budgets, according to district architect from Aten.

Schematic plans for the new westside school will be presented to the school board on March 14, Aten sald. Money for the $7.3 million project was approved by votable 2 for 3 bond issue.

formed to begin formulating plans of who will attend the new school, on 11 Mile just east of Halsted. Aten expects groundbreaking to be set for May or June. Work is progressing on the $2.7 million Farmington High media center project and facede renovations, fol-lowing a Jan. 30 groundbreaking ceremony. Included in the project is a media center that will double in size; there also will be improvements to the building facede, parking area and sidewalks. Money for the project is being taken from the district's Capital Fund.

Seminar slated for parents of students in middle schools

Parent and teen communication will be the topic of a seminar being hosted for all Farmington-area middle school parents March 14. Guest speaker Pat Hurley, known nationally for the "Humor with a Message" series, will speak on "How to Raise your Parents." His talk will to Maise your Farents. This was war cover:

• respecting each others rights,
• the freedom to fall,
• applying consistent standards,
• dealing with peer pressure,
• modeling for excellence.
The seminar will be held at East Middle School, on Middlebelt north of 10 Mile, and will begin at 7 p.m. It is being sponsored by the Farming-ton Public Schools and the counsel-ing departments.

Hurley, formerly of ABC's "Kids are People Too!", has appeared in more than 3,000 schools and has spo-ken to more than three-million par-ents and teens since 1970.

In 1982, he won an Emmy for a Los Angeles talk show and another was awarded in 1988 for a Chicago
talk show.
Call East Middle School at 4765220 for further information.

Death of patient ruled not criminal

No criminal negligence was found and charges won't be filed in the Feb. 26 death of a patient at Oak Hill Care Center in Farmington, public safety officials said. The death of John F. McGraw, 37, satety officials said.

The death of John F. McGraw, 37, was investigated by the Farmington Department of Public Safety, which turned its results over to the Oak-land County prosecutor. According to deputy public safety director Gary Goss, "the prosecutor found no criminal negligence."

The Oakland County medical examiner determined the man died of choking, Goss said.

McGraw was talken to Bustond General Haspital, Farmington Hills, Feb. 26 after an orderly found him without signs of Hic. That was shortly after McGraw has deaten lunch, plece of mea twas discovered in the man's trached during Hesaving attempts, police said.

tempts, police sald.

THERE'S A BARGAIN WAITING FOR YOU IN TODAY'S CLASSIFIEDS

George Kurajian mechanical engineer

Resident gets post in engineer society

Farmington Hills resident George Kurajian, professor of mechanical engineering at the University of Michigan-Dearborn, was elected vice president, systems and design group, for the American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

The 120,000-member society is composed of eight technical groups each with technical divisions, Kurajian is a past chairman of the Design Engineering Division — the society's largest.

Engineering Division — the society's largest.

Kurajian has been a member of the UM-D faculty since 1864 and has served as chairman of the department of mechanical engineering for 13 years (1978-88). He returned to full-time teaching last July 1.

Kurajian's two-year term as A.S.M.E. vice president begins in July.

NOTICE

Michigan's largest manufacturer of solid oak furniture has opened their showroom at the Novi Town Center. Estab-lished in 1968, we handcraft only the finest in solid oak. Visit our showroom and see what we can build for

RIVER OAKS FURNITURE 347-1200

Handcrafters SPRING ARTS & CRAFTS SHOW FRIDAY, MARCH 17 10am-9pm

SATURDAY, MARCH 18 10am-5pm NORTHVILLE RECREATION CENTER

11: blocks west of Center Street (Sheldon Ro on Main Street - Northville, Michigan with 70 DIFFERENT exhibitors

Men, if you're about to turn 18, it's time to register with Selective Service at any U.S. Post Office.

It's quick. It's easy.

Armstrong Solarian Tile Peel & Stick

Heavy Weight-No Wax 79¢

Imported Floor or Counter Top 2"x4" MOSAIC TILES

$ 1 49 Sheet' No. 274

Unglazed Self Spacing Quarry Tile 35°.

Ceiling Tile From 49° 12"x12" 4270/4290

KENTILE. FloorTile Great for basements

C 12" x 12" x 1/16" 3 Style:

Wood Floors Anderson

Bruce™ Hartco Now $ 1 49 From $ 1 49

Professional advice for de-it-yourselfers. Experienced personnel & professional installation available, commercial or residential .... then call Mr. Tile!

Novi nd Domys soor 12 Oaks Kon. - Fri. 94 Set 9-6

**∞-≖-⊠

Redford Telegraph Read 255-0075

