

Russian pianist to perform

Pianist Vladimir Feltsman will give a recital at 8 p.m. Tuesday at Temple Israel, 5725 Walnut Lake Road, West Bloomfield.

Feltsman was born in Moscow in 1952 and lived in Russia until he and his wife, Anya, and their son, Daniel, came to the United States in 1987. He won the first prize in competition in Prague at 15 and first prize in a Paris competition at 19.

He applied for an exit visa in 1979 and for the next eight years his musical activities were severely curtailed. He was not allowed to play for two years, then he played about 30 concerts in truck factories and tiny villages in the Urals.

With assistance from the U.S. National Conference on Soviet Jewry, then-Ambassador Arthur Hartman and distinguished musicians such as Zubin Mehta, Isaac Stern and Yehudi Menuhin, he was granted permission to leave.

In less than two years, he has performed with the New York Philharmonic, the Toronto, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Boston and London symphony orchestras and has given recitals in Paris, Washington, Seattle, Cleveland and Miami.
