Blooming colors

rhododendron (a deep plum color) and geranium.

PASTELS COME in two distinct palettes. The powder-puff pastels are light delicate colors, such as nude, seashell pink, celadon (a light green), pale lilac and thistle (a graceful purple). Then there are the vibrant pastels. They include dried moss, salmon, sky blue, iris and strawberry pink.

Neutrals, of course, are always with us. This spring we're seeing a nice almond cream, white smoke, gray morn, pebble, cameo rose (just barely pink) and bark.

Finally, there are the brights. Here we find sunshine yellow, emerald, classic blue and fiery red.

How do you use these wonderful colors? For a room that satisfies both your aesthetic sense and your emotions, go for a warm feeling balanced by cool touches. In a solarium, use salmon as your basic color to create a very warm, appealing environment. Paint some wicker furniture in salmon. Slipcover the cushions in a floral print that combines the neutral almond cream with iris for the touch of coolness.

Make some whimsical seating by painting stools almond, cream, salmon and iris. Strip the stool legs with the same salmon color that appears in the upholstery.

Cover the floor with big rag rugs that take in a lot of vibrant pastels — some variations of the salmon and iris, lush touches of sky blue, dried moss and strawberry pink.

Lend a final cool touch by bringing in some lovely green plants. Result: a warm, pretty, cheerful room — a fun room you'll love to return to at the end of a long, tiring day.
