pectus for buildings in Palmer Park that are registered with the National Trust for Historic Preservation. Co-sponsor of this tour is the Palmer Park Citizens Action Committee, which was reactivated as a result of last year's very successful tour. Price for members is $3; non-members, $5.

● DAADS IS LOOKING for hidden Art Deco gems in the Detroit metropolitan area. The goal of the "Putting Detroit Deco on the Map" survey is to publish a guide to Detroit-area Deco architecture. So, take a good look at your bank or hardware store. If they're Art Deco, DAADS would like to know about it. There are even a couple of Art Deco, "skyscraper style" mausoleums in Detroit's Woodlawn Cemetery.

The combined Art Deco Societies in the United States have embarked on a project to establish an Art Deco commemorative stamp. To accomplish this, it is necessary to petition the government nationally. If you're moved by the idea of "Deco" native mail, stop by the Duke Gallery, 209 North Woodward, or Deco Doug, 124 S. Woodward, both in Birmingham and lend your signature to the cause.
