3 retirees named to Teacher Hall of Fame

Three relired Farmington teachers were inducted into the FEA FEWEIGH Hall of Fame this month at a special reception. Pictured are; Katherine Van Hoy (loft) and Marian McCracken; E. Guite accepting the award on behalf of teacher Donald Gute, who died in 1984 and was named to the Holl of Fame posthumously; and FEA president Jim Minor.

The Farmington Education Association is setting the pace for Michigan teachers by continuing its Teacher Hall of Fame, honoring retired educators from the Parming-tired educators from the Parming-tion district.

This year, three were inducted into the hall of Fame during a May 2 reception. More than 200 people at-tended the reception, including friends, family and co-workers of the inductees. This is the second year teachers have been benored by the FEA in this mamer.

Special education educator Donald other states of the property teacher.

Special education educator Donald Gute, retired elementary teacher Marian McCracken and retired classroom teacher and reading specialist Kay Van Hoy were all inducted this year, with Gute receiving bonors posthumously. The three were nominated by teachers currently working in the Farmington district, and were chosen because of their exceptional professionalism and dedication.

Gov. James Blanchard gave each inductee a certificate of recognition, presented by advisor Connie Shorter. Phyllis Michell, retired from the Michigan Education Association, also presented the three with certificates.

Speaking at the reception were MEA president Larry Chunovich, Stuart Newman of state Sen. Jack Faxor's office and FEA president Jim Miner who gave each recipient an individual plaque. A large plaque containing the names of all past and present itall of Fame recipients is on display in the Scholman Administrative Center—the school district a central offices. Short blographical sketches of each inductee follow.

DONALD GUTE
 Donald Gute worked in the Farmington district from 1959 to 1984, after beginning his career in schools in Deaborn Heights and South Redford schools.

He began in Farmington at Farmington Junior High as a special education teacher. He also worked as a special education consultant and summer school coordinator for the district.

He died in November 1984.
He was active in a number of state and regional organizations, including the Council of Exceptional Children, Michigan Parents of the Hearing Impaired and the Michigan Association of Children With Learning Disabilities.

In the community, he was active in the Elks, Optimists and other groups.

In a tribute, parent Rosemary yond the classroom and whose energy was boundless. He was there to encourage our child, to teach him and give him back his self-respect."

MARIAN MCCRACKEN

MAHIAN MCCHACKEN
An active teacher in the Parmington Public Schools, Marian McCracken retired in 1982 after teachers at Bond and Eagle elementary schools.

She was active in the Parent/ Teacher Association and many com-mittees dealing with curriculum and tortbooks. She was also involved with the Tile IX Committee and was appointed by the board to the Family Life Committee in the late 1960s to deal with racism in the dis-

McCracken has also been active in the community, including the Ameri-can Association of University Wom-en, the Coalition for Peaceful Inte-pration and the Youth for Under-standing international student exchange programs. She is past state president of the National Organiza-tion for Women, and sits on the na-tional board for NOW.

During her tenure as a teacher, she was an FEA building representative, FEA secretary, active with the FEA and MEA political action committees, delegate to MEA and NEA and on the NEA Resolutions Committee.

"I hope that as a result of my influence as a teacher in the classroom, the students I taught developed into adults who truly believe in en said.

During retirement, she has traveled and remained active in politics and important causes. She sits on the executive committee of the Michigan Women's Hall of Fame.

• KAY VAN HOY
Retiring last year after 36 years with the Farmington Public Schools, Kay Van Hoy has served as classroom teacher, reading specialist and

com teacher, reading specialist and learning centre teacher.

She has worked at Ten Mils School, Wood Creek, Kenbrook, Gill, William Grace, Highmeadow, Middiebelt and Beechview elementary schools and at Cloverdale Cester, and Alameda.

Her educational involvement at other levels includes activity in the Michigan Reading Association and the International Reading Association. She has also served on a number of committees locally.

In the community, she has served on a Hunger Committee and Church and Society committee through her church, and has been involved in the Oakland County Earth Science Club and the Oakland County Literacy Project.

"I hope it can be said that I put the students and their welfare first," she said."

In retirement, Van Hoy is tutoring in the Oakland County Literacy Project and volunteering at Cran-brook Institute of Science. She's also redecerating her house and "catch-ing up on reading."

C'ville OKs new positions, classes

staft writer

Two and a hall weeks after Clarenceville voters approved a 3.5-mill tax increase, the Board of Education voted May 11 to implement changes to boost instruction. The board approved adding 3.4 teaching positions to reduce elementary class sizes, full-time librarians in each school building, plus some added classes.

"We made some promises to the community about the millage increase," said Superintendent Michael Shibler. "We intend to keep all our promises plus more."

The district covers parts of Livo-a, Redford Township and Farming-

nia, Redford Township and Farmingtion Hills Hill S MORE include art and reading classes for seventh and eighth graders, "which the students are not getting this year," Shibler sold. he added reading classes, Shibler sald, "For some reason, formal teaching of reading stops after the kids leave elementary setood."
He said the classes will focus reading skills, including comprehenslon. "I think we will find that in the 8th and 12th grades the students who will need remedial reading will decline."

Shibler said middle school art classes have not been offered in his live years as superintendent. He added that another high school coop class will also be added, along with computer math II, speech, two semesters of newspaper I and II, and sociolates.

semesters of newspaper i and ii, and sociology.

These classes can now be offered in rooms where enrollment is lower than 15 students — previously considered a cut off number for the schools to be able to schedule a

One advantage to having full-time librarians at each building, he said, is it allows more time for teaching

ELEMENTARY CLASS sizes will

ELEMENTATY CLASS sizes will be reduced to 25-to-1 for kindergarten, 26-to-1 for grades one through three, and 28-to-1 for grades four and five. Educators say lower class ratios encourage more personalized teaching. Students are "golg to have a greater chance of success," Shibler said.

said.

Added staff positions and class ra-tios are based on enrollment projec-tions for fall. Should elementary en-rollment rise higher than expected, he said the district could add more staff.

High school likely to get brick archway

New Du Pont Decorating

ldeas Book.

28 pages filled with colorful room scenes, decorating ideas, and information about carpet colors; textures and styles. present this coupon at Dalle Carpet for your copy...free!

The 36-year-old Farmington High School will likely have a brick arch-way entrance after all.

way entrance after all.—
The archway was originally planned but put on bold several weeks ago when trustees discovered the total renovation and media center project would be nearly $800,000 more than budgeted by architects Greiner Inc.

The archway represents a total cost of $5,000, which will likely come from the district's Capital Fund. The plan will use the original dedication stone. Farmington school trustees have yet to vote on the measure, but during a discussion May 16, most seemed to approve the concept. A vote on spending the auditional incaey will be taken May 31.

"We're trying to get away from the 'cookle cutter' type of front en-

Use This For Inspiration.

dent Jack Cotton. "That entrance needs help."

The archway was chosen over sev-eral other less expensive options proposed by architects. Greiner rep-resentative Judy Miller said the project could be completed by fall.

IF APPROVED, the expenditure would take the Capital Fund under its $1 million balance, deputy super-intendent Michael Flanagan told the board.

Originally started as a $1 million upgrade to the Farmington High media center, the project was expanded last October to include renovations to the building exterior. A total of $2.7 million was approved for both projects, which includes the start of the current center, and allow Farmington High to be the focus of high-tech changes in the district. A total $200,000 for furniture for the center is also included.

for the center is also include for the center is also included.

• facade renovations including:
window treatments, improvements to the entrance, sidewalks and parking lot, landscaping and removal of the school's large smokestack, which is cracked.

Pepsi - Mountain Dew Pepsi Free - Diet Pepsi Free - Vernors - A&W Slice - Diet Slice

8 1/2 Ltr. Btls. $2.19 +dep.

2 Ltr. Btl. $1.19 +dep.

12 oz. Cans $1.99 +dep.

Good May 1st thru May 14, 1989

DISCOUNT

POP 2434 Grand Pher Telegraph W. of Powers S. of Michigae 477-8470 277-3080

Middlebett N. of 5 Mile 421-5670

Because...We're not comfortable until

Buy NOW and get *400 CASH BACK on a purchase of a Carrier deluxe furnace, and heat pump or central air conditioner. LIMITED TIME OFFER, CALL US TODAY

FOR DETAILS AND A FREE ESTIMATE When you choose a Carrier heating or cooling product we want you to feel secure in knowing that you've purchased the most reliable, affordable and comfortable system

THE WEATHERMAKER®
SX GAS FURNACE
Super Low Operating Costs.
Lifetime Limited Wateranty on the Heat Exchanger.
Top Quality Throughout.

113212000

SD DELUXE CENTRAL AIR CONDITIONER

High Efficiency - means lower operating costs.

Our New Deluxe Central Air Condit

with deluxe protective features.

Low Sound Levels for That Quiet Comfort.

Designed With Serviceability in Mind.

ROLAND BROTHERS Heating and Cooling

LIVONIA 462-2332

WAYNE 722-2253 OTHER 722-0599 35820 VAN BORN · WAYNE

UseThis For Motivation.

DALLEY CARPET 33326 W. Seven Mile (at Farmington Road)

LIVONIA Hours: Hon., Tilos., Thurs., Frl. 10-0 - Wed. & Sat. 10-6 478-0255

11/2

It's Fur Storage Time At MALTER FURS

Soon to move to West Bloomfield with storage vault on premises.

At MALTER'S your furs will get the best care.

- · Deep pelt cleaning & glazing
- Expert Repairing
- Innovative Restyling

And all of this at the most reasonable rates.

So Call MALTER FURS for a FREE Bonded Pick-up at 358-0850 21742 W. 11 Mile Rd. (Harvard Row Mall) Southfield