

Summer social planned Pewabic tile goes on sale

"A Place in Time" summer social will be held at the Edsel and Eleanor Ford home, Grosse Pointe Shores, from 6:30-9:30 p.m. Sunday, June 25. The event is sponsored by Concerned Citizens for the Arts in Michigan and honorary hosts are Bill and Sue Vitto.

The current exhibit at the Ford house, "Artful Deception: The Craft of the Forger," will be open to guests.

Participants in the Sunday event are invited to dress in turn of the century costumes. Prizes for the most authentic and most beautiful costumes will be awarded. Debbie Kavelle and Terrance Meter, Jane Seymour and Christopher Reeves look-alikes from "Somewhere in Time," will greet guests.

Art by the 1988-89 Michigan Council for the Arts award-winning artists will be for sale at the silent auction.

Music will be provided by the Sounds of Time, award-winning barbershop quartet, which will represent this district at the international competition in Kansas City in July, Gentlemen of Swing from Grosse Pointe and Four Corners, jazz vocalists, Croquet matches with prizes for winners will be held.

Howard Camden, culinary artist, will present a gourmet turn-of-the-century dinner.

Proceeds will benefit CCAM's educational programs. For information, call special events chairman Marlowe Belanger, 354-4717. Tickets are $75 per person.

Indian artifacts in outdoor show

Metamora Village Antiques will host its third annual Indian Artifact Show 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday. This year the multi-dealer outdoor show is being expanded to include antique firearms and a Revolutionary War encampment. Encampment participants will be dressed in period attire and will be demonstrating blacksmithing, craftsmanship and open fire cooking. There will be a food concession on the premises. Admission is free, 3383 S. Lapeer Road, Metamora. For information, call 678-2033.
