MRS. JON WILLIAMS
(Susan Cox)

Four Sisters Attendants For Williams-Cox Rites

Four sisters served as bridesmaids and an uncle assisted in the ceremony as Susan Margaret Cox was married Sept. 7 to Jon Boyd Williams. The double-ring wedding took place in the First Christian Church of New Castle, Ind. The Rev. Walter Cox, uncle of the bride, and the Rev. Robert Jarman heard the couple's vows. The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Cox, of Farmington, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. H. Boyd Williams and the late Mr. Williams, of New Castle, Ind.

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by her father, she wore a floor-length gown of white silk organza styled with an empire waist, square neck, and sleeves of Venice lace. She carried a cascade of white roses centered around a white orchid. Her maid of honor, Eren Ocker, of Farmington, wore a floor-length, semi-fitted gown of green silk with flowers matching her bouquet in her hair. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses and white tulip mums. The bride's sisters, Carol, Nancy, Virginia, and Lila were similar gowns and carried nosegay bouquets of white roses and yellow mums.

JERRY DAY served as best man. The ushers were Gary Bosma, Harry Jeymen, Ralph Cunnell, and Skip Kramer. Mrs. Cox selected an apple green alencon lace cape coat with a green silk sheath. Mrs. Williams was attired in a yellow sheath of silk and wool

Richard Egloff Wed In Peoria Rites

Richard Cass Egloff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Egloff, of Plymouth, married Ellen Catherine Danahy as his bride in a recent double-ring ceremony in St. Thomas Catholic Church in Peoria, Ill.

The bride is the daughter of A.L. Danahy, of Peoria, and the late Mrs. Danahy. Given by her father in marriage, the bride wore a gown of silk organza over tulle. The bodice was fashioned with a scoop neckline, and panels of Venice lace encircled the waistline and elbow-length sleeves. A full skirt swept into a chapel train.

The bride's daisy-petal headpiece held her elbow-length silk illusion veil, and she carried a cascade of orchids, baby's breath and stephanotis.

MRS. DANIEL GROW, of Peoria, and Mrs. John Hurley, of Solon, Ia., attended the bride as matron of honor and bridesmaid.

Their aqua linen gowns featured deep scoop necklines and puffed sleeves and were trimmed in moss green velvet ribbon and white lace. They carried white baskets of painted daisies.

RANDALL EGLOFF assisted his brother as best man, and Dave Egloff was groomsmen. Ushers were Ron Egloff and Pat Danahy.

Molly and Stephen Nash, niece and nephew of the bride, were flower girl and ring bearer. Mrs. Egloff selected a three-piece turquoise silk suit for the occasion.

Following a reception for 150 guests in Murphy's restaurant, the couple left for a trip to Denver and the western states. They will live in Phoenix, where the bridegroom is completing his studies at Arizona State University. He expects to graduate in January. The new Mrs. Egloff is a graduate of Marycrest College.
