

Newlyweds Make Home In East

Mr. and Mrs. Ted S. Malinowski are making their home in Hamburg, N.Y., following their recent marriage in the First Evangelical Lutheran Church of Bladell, N.Y.

Mrs. Malinowski is the former Janice Louise Bucher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melton Bucher, of Livonia. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Chester Malinowski, of Darby, N.Y.

The bride, given by her father in marriage, wore a beau de sole gown with an alencon lace train and trim of iridescent sequins and pearls. A lace and pearl headpiece held her elbow-length veil. Her flowers were yellow and white roses.

GAIL SAWICKI, as maid of honor, wore an A-line dress of green corded cotton and lace. Bridesmaids Anna Malinowski, sister of the bridegroom, and Denise Bucher, sister of the bride, had similar dresses in yellow.

All the attendants wore matching headpieces of lace and silk illusion, and all carried yellow and white shasta daisies.

ASSISTING The bridegroom was Bill Schoetz, as best man, and Robert Bucher, Ed Zimmerman and Joe Tabaczinski, as ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Bucher selected a pink silk jacket dress with hand-beaded trim. Mrs. Malinowski's was blue crepe and lace.

The newlyweds greeted 140 guests at a reception in the Always Leisure Land Inn before leaving on their honeymoon.

The new Mrs. Malinowski is a graduate of the Erie County Technical Institute and her husband is a student at Buffalo State Teachers' College.

Couple Will Live In East Lansing

Debra Ann Bennett became the bride of David Frederick Eisenlord in a doubling ceremony Friday, Sept. 6.

The wedding, held in the First United Methodist Church of Plymouth was performed by Dr. Henry J. Walsh.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Perlongo and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Eisenlord, all of Plymouth.

REAPPOINTED — Mrs. Michael McLean, 23642 Schoolcraft, Livonia, will serve another three-year term as collegiate editor of "The Triangle," publication of Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority. A graduate of Adrian College, she was reappointed to the post during the sorority's recent 25th national convention in Roanoke, Va.

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by her father, the bride wore a gown of crepe de chine with Venetian lace trim at the sleeves and the hem of her chapel-length train. She carried a bouquet of white daisy mums and white roses.

Her maid of honor, Shelley Siddall, wore a yellow linen gown accented with green velvet ribbons and carried bronze daisy mums.

MRS. MCLEAN

The bridesmaids were Sharon Pinton and Donna McQuade sisters of the bride; Ellen Bennett, cousin of the bride and Diane Kankowski, a friend of the bride.

The attendants wore mint green linen gowns and carried yellow daisy mums.

Gregory Perlongo, brother of the bride, served as ring bearer and the bride's niece, Nori Pinton, was flower girl.

BLAIR EISENLOD, the bridegroom's brother, served as best man. The ushers were Bob Daymon, Randy Williams, Larry Barlow and David Pinton.

Mrs. Perlongo chose a champagne yellow, worsted silk dress worn under a fur-trimmed jacket. Mrs. Eisenlord wore a pink broadcloth sheath with matching coat and accessories.

A reception for 250 guests was held in the Plymouth Y.F.W. hall following the ceremony.

The couple honeymooned on Lake Michigan and traveled to the Upper Peninsula. They will make their home in East Lansing.

The bride is an employee of Michigan Bell Telephone Co. and the bridegroom is attending Michigan State University. Both are Plymouth High School graduates.
