No date has been set for the wedding.

Bride's Solo Part Of Vows

Rebecca Lee Smith sang "Treat Me Not To Leave Thee" as part of the nuptial vows that made her the bride of Leslie Bell in a ceremony in the Dearborn Free Methodist Church Dec. 19.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Roderick J. Smith of Farmington. Dr. Smith is superintendent of Farmington schools. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Bell of Cleveland.

The bride's brother, Bradley Smith, assisted the Rev. Frank Van Vallen in performing the ceremony, and her father gave her in marriage.

WHITE ALECON LACE fashioned the fitted bodice of the bridal gown, and the full skirt was white miramist. A lace headpiece held the bride's shoulder-length veil, and she carried a colonial bouquet.

Barbara Rose, sister of the bride and matron of honor, wore a gown with an emerald green velvet fitted bodice and a mint green miramist skirt.

Wearing dresses with lighter green skirts were bridesmaids Claudia Gustafson, Jeanette Metea, Carolee Hamilton and Sharon and Bonnie Bell. All wore holly headpieces and carried lanterns decorated with holly and velvet.

KARL SOMERVILLE was best man, and the ushers were Bill Cooper, David Oswalt, Carol Gustafson, Brent Smith and Gary Rose.

Mrs. Smith chose a mint green coat and dress ensemble, and Mrs. Bell wore a peach wool dress.

The reception for 350 guests was held in the Farmington Community Center following the ceremony.

After a wedding trip to Cleveland, the couple is living in Spring Arbor, Mich., where the bride is a senior at Spring Arbor College. Her husband graduated from the same school last June.
