

Potluck Nets New Recipes

By ELLY

There's nothing like a large family get-together in the form of a potluck dinner to bring to light some new recipes.

When Grandma Graham announced that Cousin Catherine was bringing all the dessert, enough for 40 people, our curiosity was aroused. What would you prepare for 32 the Sunday after Christmas? (There were 32 expected but Catherine made "a little extra.")

Catherine's dessert was in four 9 by 13-inch cake pans. There were two flavors, and just about everyone tried both of them. Each recipe is enough for one pan, which should serve 12.

CATHERINE'S CHOCOLATE DESSERT

- 1 angel food cake (store-bought variety)
- 1 can prepared chocolate pudding
- 1 small pkg. chocolate chips
- 2 pkg. dessert topping (she used Dream Whip)

Break cake into bite-sized pieces and combine with the pudding and the chocolate chips. Spread this mixture in the cake pan and spread the dessert topping over all. Refrigerate overnight.

PINEAPPLE DESSERT

- 1 angel food cake
- 1 can prepared vanilla pudding
- 1 can crushed pineapple, drained
- 2 pkg. dessert topping

Break cake into bite-sized pieces and mix with the vanilla pudding and the crushed pineapple. Spread in pan and top with the Dream Whip. Refrigerate overnight.

THERE WERE green beans, corn, molded salads, tossed salads, potatoes au gratin, mashed potatoes, baked ham, turkey, meat loaf and all kinds of pickles and relishes. Emilie's curried fruit deserves special mention. She says she usually serves it with ham but it is also good with chicken.

CURRIED FRUIT

- 1 No. 2½ can peach halves
- 1 No. 2½ can pear halves
- 1 No. 2½ can apricots
- 1 can pineapple chunks (smaller size than No. 2½)
- 1 can pitted cherries
- 1/3 c. butter
- 3/4 c. brown sugar
- 4 t. curry powder

Drain the fruits well. Melt the butter and blend in the sugar and curry powder. Bake one hour in a 325-degree oven. Serve hot. She said she decreases the amount of curry if it is very fresh.

EMILIE'S POTATOES taste like au gratin potatoes but better. She cooks the potatoes in their jackets then peels and slices them. They are baked in a buttered casserole with sour cream, salt and pepper, and a little minced onion. She sprinkles the top with paprika and bakes them one hour in a 325-degree oven.

IF HOLIDAY eating has firming your resolve to shed a few pounds, here's a new Weight Watchers' recipe you may want to try:

APPLE PIE

Peel and slice two baking apples into a pie pan. Take one bottle of Fresca and pour all but one half cup into a sauce pan and heat to boiling point. Dissolve two packets of unflavored gelatin in the one half cup of pop. Put three to four packets of Sweet 'N Low into boiling pop. Then add the gelatin mixture and take it off the stove, mix well, and pour this over the apples in the pie plate. Take one third cup powdered non-fat milk and sprinkle this over the apple-pop mixture. Sprinkle some cinnamon on top of this. Bake at 350 degrees for one hour. Cool in refrigerator until set. They say it's delicious, must admit I haven't tried it.

Codes Handy

Identification codes are maintained by the Mcgrover administration for more than 50 physical and mental handicaps which make a worker eligible for special services through the public employment offices.
