hurdles," coach Kevin Kavanagh said. "He became a mainstay of the team this year."

Ferlin Whitlow, John Glenn, 300 hurdles: Whitlow proved he was a quick learner, making a big impact on the Glenn track team in his first year of competition.

The senior was the 300 hurdle Dick Waters meet champion, he was second at the regional in the 300 hurdle and second in the 110 hurdle and 200 dash at the WLA meet.

His best time of 36.7 in the 300 hurdles is a school record, and it led Observerland.

"Ferlin's an outstanding runner and person," coach Richard Gordon said. "It's a remarkable achievement for a first-year runner."

Chris Woodbeck, Redford Union, 100 meter dash: The NSL champion in the 100 and 200 races, Woodbeck was undefeated in dual meets the last two years. Woodbeck was a state qualifier in the pole vault, clearing 13-0, the area's best.

His best time of 10.8 in the 100 is a school record.

Chris is hard working, a quality person and a pleasure to coach," Gibbons said.

Steve Johnson, Bishop Borgess, 200: A senior, Johnson was seventh at the Class B meet in the 200 dash, and second at the regional. He led Observerland with his best time of 22.4 in the 200, and he tied Woodbeck for the best 100 time, clocking 10.8.

Johnson also ran the 400 and 800 relays, and carries a 3.6 grade point average.

"He's the greatest kid I ever coached," coach Greg Dukas said.

Carl Lowe, John Glenn, 400 dash: Lowe was the WLA champion in the 400 run and was crowned regional champion in the 800 run. He clocked 1:56.2 to take ninth place in the 800 at the Class A meet, and was the Dick Waters Relays 400 champion with a time of 49.4.

"Carl's a hard working and dedicated runner," Gordon said. "He's a great competitor who can bring you from behind to the top."

Chad Burgess, Harrison, 800 run: Burgess, a senior, will leave Harrison with records in the 800, 1,600 and 3,200 races. He was second in the regional and fourth at the Class B meet in the 800 run.

He tied Lowe for Observerland's best time in the 800, clocking 55.2, but he was unable to perform at the WLA meet because of a fatigued knee. A three-sport standout, Burgess injured his knee during balanced ball season, limiting his effectiveness.

"His commitment, dedication and training habits are an inspiration to all of his teammates," coach John Shumacher said. "He is a fantastic young man who has received much athletic recognition, yet is very level-headed."

Jason Kocembo, N. Farmington, 1,600 run: Kocembo, a senior, was city champion, Observer Relays champion and WLA runner-up in the 1,600 run. His best time of the season was 4:40. Kocembo was an outstanding cross country runner for the Raiders.

Mike Sheridan, Catholic Central, 3,200 run: Sheridan, who has a year left at CC, is a two-time defending Catholic League champion, who also won the regional and placed first in the Operation Friendship.

His best time of 9:35.7 placed him well ahead of everyone else in Observerland.

"He's one of the best athletes in the area," Kavanagh said. "He's rated at or near the top in the 800, 1,600 and 3,200 runs. He's a hard working, intense competitor."

RELAY EVENTS

Wayne, 400 relay: Aaron Allen, Demetree Welch, Shayler Barnes and Dave Rodriguez were Wolverine A League champions and placed third at the regional. The foursome's time of 44.1 accounted for Observerland's best clocking.

Wayne, 800 relay: Allen Buford, Demetree Welch, Dave Rodriguez and Dureyah Tatum blazed the track this spring, winning the Observerland Relays, placing second in the Wolverine A League, and third at the regional. Their time of 1:29.6 led Observerland.

John Glenn, 1,600 relay: Undefeated in dual-meet action this spring, the foursome of Steve Wisely, Ferlin Whitlow, David Ryan and Carl Lowe won the Dick Waters, Elks Relay and WLA.

John Glenn, 3,200 relay: Joe Zawol, Jim Zurawski, David Ryan and Carl Lowe were second at the Dick Waters Relays behind eventual Class A champion Monroe. They won the WLA title and also claimed a regional championship.
