Celebrate God's Love' is Bible school theme

"Celebrate God's Love" is the theme of vacation Bible school in Antioch Lutheran Church. Youngsters are invited to attend the classes geared to 3-year-olds through sixth-graders July 10-14. Vacation Bible School is at 33560 W. 13 Mile. Early registration is from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday, July 8.

Bible school superintendent Rebecca Parker is looking forward to an exciting time with the children. Her staff of 30 teachers and helpers include Farmington Hills residents Donna Lee, Paula List, Connie Miller, Ann Peterson, Karen Schanerberger and Doris Brand.

Also teaching are Eileen Miller of Canton, Mark Copp of South Lyon, Fran Copp of Northville and Linda Oswald of West Bloomfield.

Students will participate in Bible stories, art activities, music, service projects, recreation and worship, all centered on five themes: "God So Loved The World," "The Earth Is The Lord's," "Love One Another," "Do Everything in the Name of The Lord Jesus," and "Go Therefore and Make Disciples of All Nations."

A special feature of the program is the all-school Celebration Station. It offers many opportunities for learning and fellowship. There will also be a Vacation Bible School program and reception Friday, July 14, to showcase the many projects and activities.

"Celebrate God's Love" is a learning opportunity for children. It aims to provide a leisure-centered, fun filled and happy occasion for all who participate.

Information on registration or donating supplies may be obtained by calling the church office at 626-7906.

Ask The People Who Know

"Quiet and relaxing, but never boring..."

You don't reach a certain age and suddenly sit around and do nothing. I like to keep busy. So before I moved to Franklin Club Apartments, I looked around for a place that offered a lot of services and activities. Franklin Club was the only one that met my needs.

If you're looking for a place that's quiet but still interesting, call 353-2810 to arrange a tour and complimentary lunch.
