Ypsilanti marks heritage

The Ypsilanti Heritage Festival, Aug. 18-20, will include activities for children and adults. Hours are noon to 5 p.m. Friday, 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. Saturday and 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Sunday.

Artrain with its special exhibit, "Treasures of Childhood: 150 Years of American Toys" will be in town for the entire weekend. There will be an arts and crafts exhibition in Riverside Park, Depot Town and at the Artrain site. More than 170 artisans will be showing their wares.

For collectors, there will be an antique glass bottle show and sale in Cross Street in Depot Town and an antique and special interest car show from 11 a.m. to closing on Saturday and Sunday on Frog Island.

Among the many displays will be antique farm tractors and implements and antique fire fighting apparatus. There will be an antique show and sale Saturday and Sunday at St. Luke's Episcopal Church, 129 N. Huron.

Entertainment will include everything from Dick Johnson and the Artie Shaw Orchestra and B.J. Thomas to a Heritage parade (11 a.m. Saturday), an historic home tour (noon to 5 p.m. Sunday), a 10 K run called The Great Train Race at 8 a.m. Sunday, a horseshoe pitching contest at 11 a.m. Sunday and a living history encampment in Riverside Park along the Huron River.
