Hills visited by Easter Seal Child

In her first visit to the Detroit area, 1990 National Easter Seal Child Vanessa Vance set the stage for what is hoped to be the best fundraising year yet for the non-profit agency.

Vanessa making one of her first official appearances for Easter Seal in metro Detroit Aug. 17-18, was hosted by Little Caesars Pizza. The pizza chain has pledged to raise $400,000 for the Easter Seal Telethon on March 3-4.

Last year, Little Caesars raised $306,000 in its first year as a national Easter Seal sponsor. The company coordinated Vanessa's visit to help prepare her for the Easter Seal Telethon.

As part of her stay in Detroit, Vanessa paid a visit to the 500 Little Caesars employees in Farmington Hills. The Little Caesars corporate staff spent Thursday afternoon participating in "Easter Seal Olympic Games" during its annual summer picnic to raise money for Easter Seals.

Vanessa Vance is a self-assured 10-year-old from San Antonio, Texas. Born with spina bifida, she is paralyzed from the waist down. With the help of leg braces and crutches, or a wheelchair, Vanessa pursues athletic interests as an award-winning swimmer. She enjoys baseball and wheelchair tennis.

She is also an accomplished skier and is learning to water-ski on a ski board.

Vanessa is a fifth grader at St. Mary's Hall School and her mother, Vivian accompanied her on the trip.
