 three-hour luncheon/tour stopover alongside Port Huron's new Thomas Edison Inn. Bluewater Michigan Chapter of the National Railway Historical Society will present this year's final outing of its West Michigan Train on Saturday, Oct. 21. Some reservation still are available for Bluewater Michigan Chapter's other fall excursion: the Wine Festival Express, a one-day round-trip from Birmingham and Pontiac to the "Wine and Harvest Festival" in Kalamazoo and Paw Paw on Saturday, Sept. 9, and the Mackinac Island, a three-day extravaganza including hotel and meals on Mackinac Island or hotel in Mackinaw City, Friday-Sunday, Sept. 15-17. Reservations are required for all three of these rail excursions. Informational flyers and reservations may be obtained by calling 399-7963 or 272-5848 between 9 a.m. and 9 p.m. daily.

ROYAL FAMILY
 A behind-the-scenes look at Broadway's greatest acting family, the Cavendishes, sets the stage for the 1927 comedy, "The Royal Family," through Sunday, Sept. 17, at Henry Ford Museum Theater at Greenfield Village in Dearborn. Performances of the Edna Ferber and George S. Kaufman farce are at 8:30 p.m. Fridays-Saturdays. A matinee will be held at 4:30 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 17. Tickets at $8 each for reserved seats are available daily at the Information Desk in the entrance to Greenfield Village, at the Museum Theater box office one hour before each performance, or by calling the Reservation Center at 271-1829. A combination dinner and theater package, at $23 per person, also is available.

PLAYS CLASSICS
 Tim Richard, news service director for Suburban Communications Corp., parent company of the 12 Observer & Eccentric Newspapers and other weeklies, will be guest host from 9-10 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 24, on the "Guess Who's Playing the Classics" program on radio station WQRS.

FREDDIE HUBBARD
 Jazz trumpeter Freddie Hubbard and his quintet will perform on the PJazz stage for the final concert of the season at 8:30 p.m. Wednesday, Aug. 30, on the outdoor terrace of the Hotel Pontchartrain in Detroit. Born in a musical family in Indianapolis, Hubbard began his musical studies in junior high school on the meliphone, switched to the French horn, and finally the trumpet. Admission is $18 for reserved "A," $15 for reserved seating "B" and $12 for general admission. Tickets may be purchased at all Ticketmaster outlets, Hudson's, Harmony House records and at the Hotel Pontchartrain after 5 p.m. the night of the concert. For ticket information, call Ticketmaster at 645-6886.

SCHEDULE CHANGES
 The 7 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 24, performance of "Fiddler on the Roof" at the Fox Theatre in Detroit has been canceled. A matinee has been added to the schedule, at 2 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 21. International star Topol plays the demanding role of Tevye, the dairyman, and is on stage during most of the show. Tickets purchased for the Sunday, Sept. 24, evening performance will be honored at the Thursday, Sept. 21, matinee. If ticket holders are unable to attend the matinee, they can exchange their tickets — for another performance of "Fiddler on the Roof" — at the Fox Theatre and Joe Louis Arena box offices. If preferred, refunds are available at the point of purchase. For ticket information call 567-6000. Broadway series subscribers will receive a special bulletin explaining how to exchange their subscription seats.

MUSICAL EVENT
 The musical drama "Evita" will be presented at eight performances, Wednesday, Sept. 27, through Sunday, Oct. 1, at the Fox Theatre in Detroit. Sandra Santlago, nationally known for her role as Gina in TV's "Miami Vice," will star as Eva Peron, the illegitimate child who rose from poverty to become the First Lady of Argentina. Andrew Lloyd Webber's score, and Tim Rice's book and lyrics follow Peron from brothel to stage to politics through her tumultuous quest for power. To charge tickets by phone, call 645-6666. For ticket information, call 567-6000. Broadway series subscribers may order tickets by calling 567-7500.

MUSIC, BRUNCH
 Kelko McNamara, pianist, will perform the music of George Gerthwin at "Brunch With Bach" at 10 and 11:30 a.m. Sunday, Aug. 27, at the Detroit Institute of Arts indoor garden cafe, Kresge Court. Guests may select from two menus — a hot main course, fruit, bread and beverage ($11) and a continental brunch at $9.50 for fruit, cottage cheese, bread and beverage. Reservation may be made until noon on the day before a desired concert. For information, reservations and a detailed schedule of "Brunch With Bach" concerts, call the museum ticket office at 832-2730.

BENEFIT SHOW
 "It's a Really Big Show," a benefit for the Attie Theatre and the Detroit Radio Information Service, begins Thursday, Aug. 24, and runs through Saturday, Aug. 26. From 8 p.m. each night, the theater in Detroit will present continuous entertainment in a variety-show format including music, comedy, poetry reading and variety sketches. Thursday will be a "Pay What You Can" night. People may drop in for a few acts and leave, or stay the evening. Contributions will be based on what is comfortable for them to give. Friday-Saturday tickets are $12 in advance and $15 at the door. Tickets may be purchased at the box office or by calling 875-9281.

Movie star Tony Cavendish (Charles VanHoose of Southfield, center) announces plans for a new theater in the 1927 comedy "The Royal Family," through Sunday, Sept. 17, at the Henry Ford Museum Theater at Greenfield Village in Dearborn. Listening are Fanny Cavendish (Blanche Graham of Redford, clockwise from left), Gwen Cavendish (Elaine Kaiser of Livonia), Julie Cavendish (Laura Niesen of Detroit), Kitty Dean (Joyce Uzelac of Birmingham), Herbert Dean (Howard Egan of Highland) and Oscar Wolfe (Joseph Haynes of Bellevoille).
