OU kickers win tourney

When the season started, Oakland University soccer coach Gary Parsons voiced concern over the number of newcomers he would have to insert into the starting lineup, particularly on defense.

Those rookies were expected to face a major test at last weekend's Lock Haven (Pa.) University Invitational. But they didn't. Or at least it wasn't much of a test.

The Pioneers steamrolled to a pair of weekend wins, defeating Keene State (N.H.) College 4-0 Saturday, then crushing host-team Lock Haven 4-1 Sunday. The victories ran OU's record to 4-0; the Pioneers have outscored their opponents by a 17-4 margin.

Midfielder Simon Mayo was named the tournament's most valuable player. He scored a goal and had one assist, and was dominating in the midfield.

IN SUNDAY'S victory, forward Paul Phillips opened the scoring early with a goal 222 into the match. Alan Stewart, who collected two goals and two assists over the weekend, and Erik Enyedy (from Southfield) assisted.

Forward Earl Parris made it 2-0 at the 18:21 mark, converting a pass from Enyedy, but Lock Haven struck back with a goal by Lance DiFabio at 21:02. The Pioneers regained their two-goal advantage at 35:09, John Brennan punching the ball into the net after a scramble in front. Stewart and Derek Willford (Livonia Stevenson) earned assists.

Mayo capped the scoring with a goal at 41:12; Dan Welnerth (Rochester Adams) and Enyedy assisted. It was Enyedy's third assist of the match, and fourth of the weekend.

In the shootout against Keene State, Phillips and Stewart each had first-half goals. Stewart and Enyedy assisted on Phillips' goal, while Mayo got the assist on Stewart's. Stewart converted a pass from Parris in the second half to make it 3-0, and Parris finished the scoring with Lang and Brian Drury assisting.

Ralph Torre started in goal in both games; Vince Alberti played the last 26 minutes against Keene State. OU's other goalkeepers were Lock Haven 17-4.

Tough defense

Garden City stalls Tractors in surprise

Garden City made a stirring comeback in the final quarter Tuesday to pull out a 38-37 girls basketball upset against visiting Dearborn Fordson.

Doreen Malone, a senior forward making her first start, scored seven of her eight points during a 17-8 surge in the decisive final eight minutes of play.

Malone's basket and Michele Tyree's two free throws down the stretch sealed the victory for the Cougars, now 2-2 overall.

"All the pieces of the puzzle came together," said an elated Garden City coach Marshall Henry. "This is one of our biggest wins ever. This is the way we like to play defense."

Malone, subbing for the injured Tracy Thompson (foot), also had eight steals.

"Doreen was all over the floor, anticipating passes," Henry said. "She was just unconscious. I never saw her play like that."

Senior guard-forward Lynn Gowen led the victors with 13 points, hitting seven of 13 free throws. She took over the point-guard spot when junior Carolyn Shanks (nine points and three steals) went down with a minor injury.

GC also got a boost defensively from senior Cindy White, who came off the bench to help limit the Tractors to 37 points.

Junior forward Wanda Baydoun scored 12 for Fordson, which slipped to 2-1 overall.

WAYNE 42, YPSILANTI 39: On Tuesday, Wayne Memorial evened its record at 2-2 by cooling off the Braves' red-hot guard Doreen Malone, who came in averaging 45 points per game.

Brown, who notched 41 in her last outing against Westland John Glenn and 51 in her season debut, was held to just 20 points as the Zebras won for the second straight time.

Wayne rallied in the final period, outscoring Ypsi 11-4.

"It was a real big win because they (Ypsi) are a talented team," said Wayne first-year coach Jack Furlong. "We were conscious as to where she (Brown) was on the floor at all times."

Senior center Dorris Balthwell led Wayne and all girls basketball

scores with 33 points, while senior guard Maya Lewis contributed 11.

"Maya did a good job of running the point," Furlong said. "She set a nice pace, a good tempo."

In Saturday's consolation final of the Taylor Center Tournament, Wayne leveled Romulus, 45-30, as Balthwell poured in 17 points and Lewis added 15.

Sue Molena tallied 11 in a losing cause.

Taylor Center beat Grosse Ile, 57-51, in the championship final.

STEVENSON 43, CHURCHILL 41: Center Teresa Sarneo netted 18 points, including the game-winning basket on a six-foot jumper with three seconds to go Tuesday, giving Livonia Stevenson (3-0) a hard-fought win over upset-minded Livonia Churchill (0-3).

Sarneo also grabbed 14 rebounds, while teammate Jessann Martin contributed 12 points and 20 rebounds. Jenny Audet added nine points.

Freshman guard Chrissy Daly continued to impress, scoring a game-high 24 points, including 14 in the final period as Churchill outscored the Spartans, 16-8. (Daly hit a pair of three-pointers during the surge.)

With 14 seconds left to play, Daly made a pair of free throws to knot the count at 41-41.

"We called three straight timeouts, but we couldn't let her (Daly) go," said Stevenson coach Chuck Hebestreit.

Frans Pribe also played well in defeat, scoring 10 points.

"She (Pribe) played a heck of a defensive game," said Churchill coach Don Alberson. "She guarded Audet, but her 10 points was a bonus."

And, offensively, Daly is doing a pretty good job for us."

SOUTH LYON 51, JOHN GLENN 42: Westland John Glenn (1-3) lost for the third straight time Tuesday in a non-leaguer to the host Lions.

Jenny Shanks and Carol Pribe each netted 14 points for the starters.

Shawarren Lee and Jenny Massey each tallied 13 for the Rockets, who were outscored 16-9 in the decisive third quarter. (Lee also grabbed 12 rebounds.)

"We're young and were up against some teams who are playing tough defense on us," said Glenn coach Pat Bennett. "We're getting frustrated."

BORGESS 35, REDFORD UNION 33: Senior forward Tanya Tounsel scored 18 points and added nine rebounds Tuesday, giving Redford Bishop Borgess a two-point victory at RUU.

Both teams are 1-2 overall.

Chinetta Austin, who had only four points, tallied the go-ahead basket (34-33) with 20 seconds to play. Austin also had four steals, while teammate Sandy Crenshaw contributed six assists.

Three players netted eight points apiece for the Panthers — Danielle Sorel, Ann Kolar and Shannon Morris. Sorel also had eight assists, while Kolar scored nine rebounds.

RU coach Terri Anthony was not happy with what happened in the final four seconds when Tounsel led the game with a free throw.

Anthony contended the call, which sent Tounsel to the line, should have been a jump ball (giving RU possession) or a rebounding foul against Borgess.

"But the game was not decided in the final four seconds," Anthony said. "We played hard, it should not have come down to that."

WILLOW RUN 66, CLARENCEVILLE 24: Junior forward Danielle Rose scored 15 points and grabbed 12 rebounds, but it wasn't enough Tuesday as host Livonia Clarenceville (1-3) was blitzed by the visiting Flyers (1-2).

Willow Run led 24-10 after one quarter, 34-17 at the half and 44-17 after three quarters before coasting home.

Kellie Castle of the Flyers paced all scorers with 20. Rhonda Saunders added six for the Trojans.

NOVI CHRISTIAN 34, GC UNITED 21: Garden City United Christian lost its season opener Tuesday to visiting Novi Christian (1-0).

Elsie Letevre, a freshman forward, scored all 12 of her points in the second half, but it was too late as GC United couldn't overcome a 10-0 first-quarter deficit.

Debbie Davidson, a sophomore guard, added seven points and 13 rebounds. Shay Owens, a junior center, grabbed eight boards.

Amy and Jill Harlow tallied 16 and 12, respectively, for Novi Christian.

SC shows national champion form

After a shaky start, Schoolcraft College's volleyball team returned to a familiar role — as champions.

The Lady Ocelots lost their first two matches at the Michigan Tech Tournament last weekend, but rallied to win their next two and capture the tournament title. Their 12-15, 15-7, 12-15, 15-6, 15-12 defeat of Wisconsin-Milwaukee in the final clinched the title.

"The key to our success, being we were outscored, was our fast defense and consistent play," said SC coach Tom Teeters.

Sisters Alicia and Angelle Love and JoAnn Kolinsky sparked the defense; Angelle Love also had 21 kills and Kolinsky collected 16. Elena Oparka added nine more. Christy Clark had four aces in 15 serves, without an error.

SC ADVANCED to the final after defeating Indiana-Purdue at Fort Wayne 15-11, 15-4, 15-4. Angelle Love's 12 kills paced the attack; Oparka had 11. Kolinsky contributed two solo blocks, four block assists and three digs, while Alicia Love had seven service aces. Setter Jenny Sprout had 24 assists-to-kills without an error and three block assists.

Teeters was tinkering with his lineup in the first two matches, one reason the Lady Ocelots lost 15-4, 4-15, 15-13, 7-15, 15-9 to Wisconsin-Milwaukee and 3-15, 3-15, 15-13, 15-9 to Michigan Tech.

Sprout is both a newcomer to the lineup at setter, replacing Chris Piacero, and a newcomer to the position. At Livonia Churchill, Sprout was an outside hitter.

Against Wisconsin-Milwaukee in the final, Teeters said Sprout "had an excellent match setting. We're turning her into a setter, and the experience she had at Churchill has helped her tremendously. She's handling it very well."

There was one sour note: The Lady Ocelots lost Anjanette Lankford with an injured ankle on the first day of the tournament. Lankford will be out approximately two weeks.

SC plays in the Lake Michigan College Tournament this weekend.
