Oakland netters take tumble

What started with such promise has turned sour.

Just last week, Oakland University volleyball coach Bob Hurdle was envisioning a bright season. He had a team with dominating middle blockers and a new, improved setter. If they could iron out a few wrinkles, the Pioneers could repeat as Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference champions.

That was a week ago. Since then, OU has endured a mediocre trip north to the Northern Michigan University Tournament — the Pioneers were 2-2 and were whipped in three straight games in the semifinals by GLAC nemesis Ferris State — and, worse yet, lost their league-opener at Wayne State

Tuesday 15-8, 15-11, 15-17, 15-10.

Hardly the stuff champions are made of. Neither is the hitting which Hurdle figured to be the team's strength this season. Against WSU, the Pioneers hit a dismal .025, connecting on 37 kills in 118 attacks with 34 errors.

ERROR DEFINED their play Tuesday. OU made 10 errors of service and had 16 more on serve reception. Only middle blocker Jennifer Zielinski (also kills in 15 attacks with three errors, 400 hit, four block assists) and setter Janice Van Velsken (eight kills, 429 hitting, 27 assists-to-kills) performed well.

At NMU, the hitting was again poor. In Friday's opening loss to North Dakota State (15-4, 15-10, 11-15, 15-6), the Pioneers were .039; in their 15-5, 15-13, 15-8 loss to FSU, they hit .012.

There were some bright spots. OU swept NMU 15-8, 17-15, 15-2, with Zielinski getting 11 kills in 18 errorless attacks (41 hitting). The Pioneers also struggled, but defeated North Dakota 15-8, 4-15, 15-9, 7-15, 15-9. And the one game they won against North Dakota State was the only game the third-ranked Lady Bison lost in the tournament.

OU will try to get back on track this weekend at the Indiana-Purdue at Fort Wayne Tournament.

Hawks blank WLC

Farmington Hills Harrison posted its first win of the boys soccer season Monday, making a victim of Wall Lake Central 3-0.

The Hawks (1-4) led 3-0 at halftime on goals by Vince Berg, Mike Jacobs and Ben Pinsky. Berg had an unassisted goal, and Mike Wollers and Sharp Brown assisted on the other two, respectively.

Harrison goalkeeper Chris Schrowe got his first shutout, and stopper Steve Blankenship led the defense.

FARMINGTON 2, W.L. WESTERN 2: Mike Gammerath scored both goals to rally the Falcons from a 2-0 deficit in the Western Lakes Activities Association crossover game Monday at Western.

"I'm looking for him to lead our offense and he came through," Farmington coach Cathy Cole said. "We needed that because we've been having a problem scoring."

The Warriors, who led 2-1 at halftime, got goals from stopper Jimmy Capicchioni, who scored on a penalty kick, and Chris Crawford.

Mike Sheehy spent the first half in goal for the Falcons, and Stagger Bjedov stoned Western in the second half.

"In the second half, the game was played mostly in the midfield," Warriors coach Dave Morgan said. "Once they scored their second goal, they settled into a defensive style and seemed to be content to play for a tie."
