

300 game marks start of new season

THE LEAGUE opens here today with some outstanding efforts showing up on the scoreboards all around town.

One of the better "Classic" Leagues has undergone a slight change. The Miller Lite Classic League bowls each Friday, in two shifts, at Plum Hollow Lanes. The name is different, but most of the faces and high shooters are the same, since this had formerly been the Budweiser Classic League.

Many of the area's finest bowlers compete here, with a 300 game by league secretary Dick Lang highlighting the opening night. This was the 10th perfect game for Lang.

Lang has had a lot of highlights in his career as a bowler, including several series on the All-City team and a first-place finish in the GDBA Masters Tournament.

Other recognizable names competing at Plum Hollow include Edna Lubanski, Billy Coleman, Dave Tulak, Mike Samardija and Randy Pierce.

Other highlights from opening night included a 735 series by Eric Tulley of Livonia, a 748 series by Jeff Lillard and a 289 game by Amos Mathis. Tulley and Mathis are fresh from the ranks of youth leagues.

Anyone who is interested in watching some of the best bowling in the area should get over to Plum Hollow Lanes at Nine Mile road and Lusher any Friday night.

Not to be overlooked, the women are starting the season with some nice scoring in the Ladies Classic League at Country Lanes on Nine Mile road in Farmington Hills.

This group hits the lanes at 9:15 p.m. on Tuesdays.

Last week's opener featured Chris Clum tallying a 249 game in a 617 set, while Sandi Wood rolled up a 337 game, and Joan Schmidt came in with a 302 series.

In the Greenfield Mixed League, Jim Walderp started the season with a 365 game and a 616 series. Katie Stoeny bowled a 607 series and Billy Franklin rolled a 613 series. This was Franklin's first-ever 600 series.

Bel Aire Lanes in Farmington had Janell Jamerson recording a 321 game in a 569 series while rolling in the Friday mixed league.

Jill Willis led the "Funtimeers" league with a 263 game, remarkable since it was exactly 104 pins over her average.

The Men's Senior House League started out with a bang, as recent Hall-of-Fame inductee Fred Vitale fired a 696 series with a 255 game.

Also, Dave Halstead scored a 671 series, Jim McPhail Jr. rolled up a 668 with a 253. Tom Johnston added a 656 and John Robertson came in with a 255 game.

10-pin alley

Al Harrison

Not to be outdone, senior citizens can still show the youngsters a thing or two when it comes to bowling.

This was demonstrated by Paul Putz, who bowled a 256 game and 600 series in the "Senior Wings Leftovers" League at Merri-Bowl Lanes in Livonia.

Arbur Lyons also contributed a 244 game in this senior's competition.

In other action at Merri-Bowl, the Men's Senior House League had a "head start" on August 30th, with Jim McPhail leading the scoring with a 735.

Other top series were noticed by John Watkins (717), Mickey Praytulski (713), Howard Davis (679) and Garrett Nagle (658). Additionally, John Bryngelson rolled a 267 game.

On Sept. 6, the group was again led by Jim McPhail with a 672 series, while Pat Patterson totaled 666, and Fred Young shot a 299 game.

In the newly formed "Right Approach Scratch Trio League," Garrett Nagle topped the scorers with a 268 game and a 671 series.

Other top rollers included Charlie Riffe with a 243 game and a 671 series, Rick Ianetta with a 254, Steve Pauls with a 257 and Mary Molacsi with a 248.

At Mayflower Lanes in Redford Township, "That Old Gang of Mice" Mixed League action featured a 275 game from John Maddison.

In the "Harried Housewives" League, Brenda Korp fired a 219 game.

The "Tuesday Nite Men's League" had Marty Radtka hitting a 233 and a 607. Tom Ellington rolled a 243, Karl Root spun a 212, and Dave Schoeninger bowled a 210.

In the Wednesday AM's, Elaine Klopovic had a 211 and Debbie Wood a 221.

Westland Bowl did not have a lot of high scoring to open the season, but one young lady did come through in a big way. Lona Palise, a 17-year old, picked up where she left off last year with a 748 series on a block of 220-269-255.

Super Bowl in Canton has a senior citizen's league called the "Double Nickel Plus," which saw senior bowler Robert Morin open with a 255 game. In the "Super Bowlers," Rick Patterson cracked out a 255 game. The Canton Little League featured Gary Pemberton with a 192 game, Jim Weber a 552 series and Marsha Barons a 500 series.

Woodland Lanes in Livonia is the site of the Ford Parts League, had Tom Reno kicking off the season with a 739 series, including a 289 game. In the "Morning Glories," Kathy Sherry rolled games of 231 and 250.

The Senior House League action featured Craig Demos at 692, Tim Grates at 681 with a 279 game, Dave Wisniewski at 658, Art Kapetansky at 692, Kevin Borg at 694, Dave Gignac at 713 with a 269 game and Jerry Tomczak at 691 with a 275 game.

The "Midnighters" had Gary De Mea score a 278 game in his 665 series. In the "Stinkers," Ed Winters fired a 268 game.

In the Granddads League, Bud LeBlanc Jr. shot a 209 series with a 257 game. The "Kings and Queens" featured Tom Elsey with a 227 series and Wall Smith at 714.

Mike Koslovsky shot a 277 game in the All Men's League.

The Thursday AM Ladies saw two bowlers roll their first 200 game. Terri Griffin shot a 200 even, and Jan Deane bowled a 203.

In the Morning Stars League, Judy McDonald rolled a 234 game.

Marilyn Vaughn hit a 521 set and Becky Tester roll a 517 series in the "Flyers" circuit.

At Clover Lanes in Livonia, the Midland Shrine Bowling League started its 57th year with 22 teams in action. They will be holding a "Head Pin" tournament, 1 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 29. (It is open to the public.) The league bowls at 6:30 p.m.

Schoolcraft soccer settles for 1-1 draw

A seesaw battle turned into a slugfest and ended in a 1-1 tie Tuesday when Schoolcraft College's women's soccer team visited Siena Heights.

Siena finished fourth in the NAIA a year ago, so the tie was encouraging to SC coach Nick O'Shea. The Saints scored first and, according to O'Shea, they "dominated the first half."

That changed in the second. The Lady Ocelots came alive and took the match to Siena. Joan Arndt converted a Cindy Bowman pass into the game-tying goal for SC.

The back-and-forth complexion continued into the two overtimes, with Siena exerting great pressure in the first with some good crossing passes and SC taking command in the second.

With three minutes remaining in the second OT, SC sophomore defender Rosemary Halley and a Saint player traded exchanging punches at both benches cleared. After the teams were separated, Siena's Lisa Brocardo (from Livonia Stevenson) and Halley (Livonia Churchill) went at it again, according to reports from the SC side.

Halley and Brocardo were given red cards. Halley hurt her knee in the melee, but the injury was not expected to be serious.

SC plays again 4 p.m. Wednesday at the University of Michigan.

Madonna splits pair

Madonna College split a pair of women's volleyball matches last week.

On Thursday, the Fighting Crusaders downed visiting Henry Ford Community College, 15-5, 15-7 and 15-13.

Livonia Ladywood High product Stacy Girard led the Madonna offensive assault with 11 kills, while Redford Bishop Borgers product Kristy McFadden, Ann D'Ambrino and Melissa Mars combined for 20 more.

Setters Lynn Bernwanger (Walled Lake Central) and Penny Baker both turned in excellent performances in running the Madonna attack.

Defensive standouts included Wendy Wesala, Val Perrone (Borgers) and Lisa Droske (Borgers).

On Wednesday, Madonna fell to host Kalamazoo College, 15-13, 17-15 and 15-10.

The Crusaders blew leads of 13-6 and 14-3 in the first and second games, respectively.

Girard and freshman Tonia Smith (Walled Lake Central) each recorded 14 kills, while McFadden, a sophomore, added 11 kills.

Sophomore Jenny Sladewski (Livonia Stevenson) and senior Wendy Spencer (Walled Lake Western) were the defensive standouts.

Madonna (2-1) returns to action at 7 p.m. Tuesday at home against Spring Arbor, an NAIA opponent. The Crusaders will also face Northwood, 7 p.m. Thursday at home.
