O&E Thursday, September 21, 1989

Sowerby wants order at council meetings

By Bob Skiar staff writer

E 2A(F)

Reaffirmed as chief parliamentar-ian for the Farmington Hills City Council this week, city attorney Paul Bibeau is expected to bone up on Robert's Rules of Order.

Robert's Rules of Order. Raising the issue Monday, council-man Paul Sowerby said: "It appears to me this council needs a parlia-mentarian. These meetings are going all over the map." Sowerby called for a volunteer layman or the city attorney to do the job, but added that be felt "the city attorney is the person who should do

He said Mayor Terry Sever, who presides over council meetings, has wrongly overrided councilman Addo Vagnozal "on several motions." Sowerby said "procedures are not followed" and lack of a parliamen-tarian as added "to the length of the meeting." When Sever said he didn't agree, Sowerby, appointed to the council in March to fill a vacancy, shot back "Yoo're the worst parliamentarian on the council." To which the mayor responded: "Our quickest and best meetings seemed to have occurred before the seventh person joined the council." WHEN IT appeared some council

Which is appended soft to conclusion members were treating his sugges-tion lightly, Sowerby said, "I don't see as much humor as others do. I think we look like buffcons," : Ho said council meetings should be run "in a formal manner," w Robert's Rules of Order applying.

Vogorai agreed that the council "should have semeone to make de-finitive rules" when parliamentary questions arise. Sever said Sowerby was 'way off base." Ho said be didn't think tack of a parliamentarian had anything to do with the length of council meet-ings.

a great job running a great meeting. Now all of a sudden, the last 2-3 months, people aren't happy. It doen't make sense." Jody Soronen ngreed that the city attorney should do the job, "Can we find a volunteer to sit with us for live hours every Monday?" she asked, not at all in jest.

jest. Sowerby assured Sever his suggesings. sowerny assured Sever nis sugges-tion shouldn't be taken as "a person-"For six months," Sever said, "a lot of people were saying I was doing al tatack on your abilities. It's actu-ally an offer to help you," he said.

Resident upset by attention paid to peace march area neo-Nazi political group has also said the Drayton Plains-based SS Action Group would like to hold i-peaceful counterdemonstration on the same day. City officials are preparing for Oct. 15 with caution, engaging sup-port from other law enforcement agencies and talking with Love Force United and SS Action Group members to stay abreast of the is-sues.

By Casey Hans stalf writer

A Farmington resident is upset with publicity given to a proposed peace march and rally planned, for mid-October and he requests being made by the even's organizer. Dave Nitz said Monday he was up-set by an Observer article in which resident Derwin Success outlined five requests to the city, using them as an apparent lever for disbanding bits proposed march.

clarification

- Farmilugton Families In action is planning a four-week series called "Are You Concerned?" relating to drug and alcola abuse during Octo-ber. Incorrect dates for the pro-grams have run in several issues of the Observer.

grams have run in several 15346 of the Observer. "The programs will each be held at 7.10 pm." on Wednesday Oct. 8, 10, 17, and 24, at Farmington Hills Har-rison High School. Those interested may attend one or all of the pro-grams, while will have independent themes. Involved in the programs will be representatives 'from Maplegrove Alcoholism Chemical Dependency Treatment Center in West Bioon-field. The programs are offered free of charge to the community.

O O&E Classifieds workl

Success said if his requests were met, he would consider marching alone on Grand River and holding only a rally at city hall on Sunday alternaon, Oct. 15. City officials say they have not yet received those requests. Nut, took the requests as threats. "Are these comments meant to In-timidate the city council or the city?" Nitz anded the city council Monday. "Those requests are totally Midculus. As long as Yve bired in this city, I've never scen racism.

"I was upset when I saw this article." On Sept. 8, Success told the Ob-server and several other media he server and several other media he wanted: official recognition of Mar-tin Luther King's birthday, Black History Month in the city, a bi-racial task force for racial harmony, an el-ementary curriculum that includes cultural diversity, and recruitment and hiring of a black city employee.

SUCCESS IS black and believes he is being persecuted because of his race and because he is married to a white woman. The city's public safe-ty department has two property de-struction incidents on file for the couple's Shiawassee Street address, including a 1987 incident in which racial slurs were painted on the fam-We'r hours. ily's house.

Mayor Richard Tupper told Nitz the city is "on top of this thing dai-ly," and stressed that neither he nor the city administration had received any request from Success outlining his plan. Tupper had suggested Suc-cess attend Monday's city council meeting and present his plan; he did not attend. Success, who, formed Love Force United this summer, said in earlier reports he expected a large crowd for the march and rally. But in re-cent days, several people involved with the march have removed them-selves from the organizing process. Others have said they will not march.

march

A, representative from a Detroit shirt drive, pack food and toys, send letters, paper sale, blue jean pro-gram and health box program.

The repair work is scheduled to be done by Sept. 22, weather permit-ting, said James Cubera, senior engi-neer for the city of Farmington Hills.

Farmington -Øbserver (USPS 167-040) shed every Monday and Thurs-by Observer & Eccontric News-rs, 805 E. Maple, Birmingham, 48009. Socend-class postage at, Birmingham, Mi 4809. Ad-s all mail (subscription, change tores Ecrem 3569) to P. O. Boz sues.

ora, 480

(ii) 48003. Second class postage poid a, Birmapharr, Mi 49005, Ad-dress all mail (subscription, changle and class point sets) to choose and class and sets and and and sets and the sets and and and SUBSCRIPTION RATES (in Cakinat County) 36.4.0 (constraint) and and and and Newstand ... per copy, 50 Constraint (sets) and and Newstand ... per copy, 50 Constraint (sets) and and River, Farmington Colserver reserves the right not to accept and contrine of Advers have no subority to bind this newspaper and only construct for an advertisor and.

5

There's still time to sign up for the Farmington Observer's public relations seminar next week, mule-cible, sports, business, eiter, mule-ipal, entertalament or other types of community news, take note. The Farmington Observer is a newspaper your should be familiar with. It's an efficient way to reach 19,600 households in Farmington and Farmington Hills twice a week.

and Farmington Hills [twice a Week. HOW DO you submit informa-tion to the news staff in a way that's suitable for publication in the newspape precise question the Observer staff will try to answer as simply as possible at the public relations seminar 7.30-9 p.m.

Weldensday, Sept. 27, in the council thambers of Farmingtion City Hall, 2000 Liberty. The set our staff and learn four groups most important tools: a provide the submit one of our groups most important tools: a provide the served. Well provide an overview, an-sourt of rature reference. Refresh-ments will be served. The dealine to register for the should be served. The dealine to register for the should be served. The dealine to register for the should be served. The dealine to register for the should be served. The dealine to register for the should be served. The dealine to register for the should be served there: Those to serve there: - Bool State, editor

Publicity seminar

deadline nearing

Farmington area Goodfellows will host interested people and new members at a kick-off meeting at 10 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 23, in Farming-ton City Hall Council Chambers, 23600 Liberty af Grand River, Meet the warlows point the various committee chairs. Help is needed for the dress and

The Farminton Area Goodfellows are based at 33201 Grand River, Farmington 48024. The telephone number is 474-3440. 14 Mile closing scheduled Fourteen Mile, from Orchard Lake Road to Farmington Road, will be closed for 2-3 days this week to repair the major drain crossing un-der the road, 150 feet west of Club House Lane.

Area Goodfellows

to host meeting

News that's closer to home News that's close

