Mercy dunks No. 4 Huron in swimming

Farmington Hills Mercy's first dual meet couldn't have come off better than it did.

The Marlins, ranked No. 6 in Class A in the preseason poll, toppled fourth-ranked and perennial state power Ann Arbor Huron 45-37 at Mercy.

Mercy splashed Huron in the medley relay as Katie Westhoff, Katie Knipper, Lisa DeMatia and Karen Neyer struck a time of 1:55.27.

Westhoff and Knipper also won individual events, Westhoff taking the 100-yard backstroke with a 1:05.19 mark, and Knipper the breaststroke with a 1:08.00.

Polly Tenuta and Becky Wiquist also won first-place honors for the Marlins. Tenuta was victorious in the 500 freestyle with a time of 5:28.2, and Wiquist the 200 individual medley with a 2:21.0 time.

In addition, Mercy's B medley relay placed the state cut as Jenny McCombs, Joan Huellmantel, Katie Scanlon and Erika Smith combined for a 2:00.7 time.

Neyer and DeMatia also met the qualifying standards with second-place swims. Neyer went 25.93 in the 50 freestyle and DeMatia 1:01.16 in the butterfly.

The Marlins received additional help from Michelle McCaffrey and Wiquist, both of whom had second-place swims in other events. McCaffrey swam 2:04.63 in the 200 freestyle and Wiquist 5:55.18 in the 100 free-style.

Chiefs rally past North in basketball

Plymouth Canton did an about-face in the second half Tuesday night to defeat Farmington 55-49 in girls basketball.

The Chiefs, who trailed 26-24 at halftime, outscored their host by seven in the third quarter and limited the scoring of North's Eve Clair in the second half.

Clair, who along with Canton's Susan Ferko, scored a game-high 20 points, had three in the third quarter and none in the fourth.

"Jennifer Russell did an outstanding defensive job on her, with a lot of support from her teammates," Canton coach Bob Blohm said.

The Chiefs carried a 38-33 lead into the final, a high-scoring conclusion, which saw Canton outscore the Raiders 17-16.

Stacey Thompson added 15 points and Russell 10 for the Chiefs, who have won two straight. Kim Gurechik scored 14 and Ginger Donoghue nine for North, which has lost two straight. Both teams are 2-2.

"We gave up more points than I would like in the fourth, but I thought the chemistry was good," Blohm said. "In the second, third and fourth quarters, it was pretty good."

"We played a really solid game, and the recognition was better against the zone," he added.

North held the upper hand early, leading 17-12 after one quarter and by as many as eight at one point. But the Raiders missed two 1-and-1 opportunities, and the Chiefs scored the last six points of the half.

North was within a point, 48-47, in the fourth quarter when it missed a couple more 1-and-1 chances.

Canton put a lot of pressure on us, and we threw the ball away," North coach Greg Capling said.

Nonetheless, Capling was proud of the effort the Raiders put forth.

"I told them, if they can play with Canton, they should be able to play with anybody," he said. "My kids played tremendously hard. I'm very proud of them."

CANTON 38, TRENTON 30: The Chiefs defeated Trenton a second time Saturday in the consolation game of the Mercy Hoops Classic.

Susan Ferko paced Canton with 20 points and nine rebounds. Stacey Thompson added eight points, and Jenny Russell had five assists.

Blohm said Russell played an outstanding defensive game that night, too, holding Trenton's Kim Hoppes to five points.

NORTHVILLE 49, FARMINGTON 27: Kate Holstein scored a game-high 17 points for the visiting Mustangs, who outscored the Falcons 35-12 in the second half after trailing 15-14 at halftime.

Rachel Cannon, Jennifer McGillich and Erika Hatcher scored six points apiece for Farmington; 2-3. Northville is 3-2.

STEVENSON 77, HARRISON 34: Four players scored in double figures for the once-beaten Spartans, 4-1. Teresa Sarno led the way with 10 points, Kelley Carter scored 18, Jessann Martin chipped in 13 and Stephy Sutter added 10.

Heather Hoppe led the Hawks, who trailed 39-19 at halftime, with 11 points. Harrison is 2-3.
