Nominees for award needed

Nominations continue to be accepted for the 1089 Citizen of the Year, which honors a person who has worked to improve or uplift some aspect of the community, respect of the community, respect at the 27th annual awards banquet, hosted by the Farmington/Farmington Hills Chamber of Cominerce, in the Holiday Inn of Farmington Hills. Nominees can be anyone who has contributed meritorious service to the community either as a volunteer or in connection with their business.

volunteer or in connection with their business. There are no limitations to a nominee's age, sex or residency, But they must have accomplished their community deeds in the Farmington/Farmington Hills area.

IN SIZING up potential Citizens of the Year, remember that award winners are excluded from consideration. Government officials may be nominated for their rolunteer achievements only.

Don't hesitate to renominate past nominees who waren't winners but who are still deeply active in the community.

pass nominees who were will deeply active in the community. Use the accompanying nomination form. Also provide a description of your nominees most recent local achievements. Supporting letters from colleagues, peers and others who can elaborate on the value of your nominee's service or character are encouraged. Be specific in explaining why you believe these contributions are significant and should earn special plaudits. A resume of service would be helpful. Detail time periods.

Councilman Philip Arnold said this is a long education process.
"I very greatly resent what Mr.

"This kind of zoning can not go next to cluster because cluster is single family. Before Mr. Vagnozzi makes those claims from this beach, he should be absolutely sure of his facts, before he starts rabble-rousing."

he should be seen that a rabbie-tun-ing."

Arnold said some very qualified people have volunteered to serve on toxic/hazardous materials. He sug-gested putting the rezonlar over off until the first of the year, to give the committee a chance to examine toxicity concerns and safeguards city-wide.

"SOME OF us have been chastised for being emotional," said councilwoman Jean Fox. "I think it is a sad day in America when you can't be emotional about your home or your family. This is spot zoning."

Councilman Paul Sowerby, who arrived late at the meeting, initially forwarded a letter to be read. In part, it stated: "I believe it is fair to consider the petitioner. Mr. Kaftan is a builder of reputs in our city and candidly I am not aware of one instance where Mr. Kaftan has been denied a request by this city. "Same is directly attributable to his petitions being well-thought-out fair and, of course, to Mr. Kaftan's personal flucibility concerning conditions and restrictions placed upon his request."
Sweeply upports the reconing request and has confidence in the planning commission, city staff and the developer.

Changes need to be made to the ordinance and its amendment, said Mayor Terry Sever.
"I do believe the city does not have adequate enforcement ability, I don't think we have adequate man-power."

VAGNOZZI MOVED to deny the roning request. He was supported by Fox. The molion lost 4-3. Vagnozzi. Fox and Sever supported the metlon. Vagnozzi then made a motion to place a moratorium on IHO reconga navybere in the city until after the ad hoc committee issues its findings next year. Arnold supported the motion, which passed 4-3, with nay votes cast by Sowerby, Marks and Soronen.
