

briefly speaking

POULET EXHIBIT

Etchings and poetry of Livonia artist Jeanne Poulet are on exhibit at the Swords into Plowshares Peace Center & Gallery, Detroit.

Entitled "Man's Inhumanity to Man," the exhibit is from Poulet's set of poems and prints, "Bernard with a Sussie (pacifier)." She will read her poetry and discuss her art 5-8 p.m. Friday.

Poulet designed her own process of etching consisting of dots and scratches (as opposed to lines) that become a composition. She recently has moved from black and white to color etching, used in the current exhibit.

The exhibit closes Oct. 7. The gallery is at 45 E. Adams, Detroit, next to the Detroit Council of the Arts.

Over 100 works, spanning his 35-year art career, will be featured in the exhibit by Gwynne Dart, retired Henford Community College art instructor, in Sisson Gallery, at the county college in Dearborn through Friday, Oct. 6.

Many of his works have been completed the past four years since his retirement from HFCC's art department where he taught for
